Aaron M. Cohen

October 10, 1937 - November 8, 2012

Aaron "Al" M. Cohen, 75, of Jamesville, New York passed away at Iroquois Nursing Home on November 8, 2012 after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

Aaron was born October 10, 1937 to the late Eli and Eva (Engelbart) Cohen in Schenectady, New York where he grew up excelling in academics and sports. Aaron enjoyed a long and successful career in commercial and residential development and construction. Moving to Syracuse in 1990, Aaron became involved in the local tennis community. Through Billie Jean King's World Team Tennis Organization, in 1995 he established and became the director of the Syracuse Senior Circuit for area seniors to enjoy and participate in the life-long sport of tennis.

Aaron was predeceased by his youngest son in 1985. He is survived by his wife, three children, one stepdaughter and many grandchildren.

The family would like to thank his many wonderful tennis friends and acquaintances for the many years of fun and laughter they provided him. We would also like to thank the wonderful staff at Crouse Hospital on 4S and at Hematology/Oncology Associates.

Aaron always gave 120% and we will miss him 120%!

Per his request, there will be no services.

“ Linda and Family, So very sorry for your loss, I didn't know Aaron but we spoke about him and your life with him and family at Aphrodite. When my husband passed away you were so kind and supportive. We bonded immediately. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Gloria

“ AI,

You were always an inspiration to me. Just Friday I was playing tennis and swung too hard up at the net and I heard you telling me to just meet the ball. Thank you for all you have done for me.

Linda,

Andrea and I give you our deepest condolences.
