“ I had the privledge of knowing Agnes only a short time. I would see her frequently about the grounds at Alterra while visiting my Mom. She always had the time to stop and chat and continually showed concern for my Mom. Although Agnes would have difficult days of her own, she would put the needs of her neighbors before her own. She is very respected by all those who knew her.I believe in a different time frame, I would have truly enjoyed Agnes as a ""girlfriend"". I will fondly miss her.

“ I met Mrs. Reilley once when I was a sophomore in high school, and it was great. She was embarrassed to talk because she needed a tooth fixed, but she still made jokes to get us to laugh and couldn't help but smile at herself--with a hand over her mouth of course. I just thought, wow, that's exactly how I want to be when I grow up. It really seems like she lived a love-filled life. My thoughts are with all of you. Love, Kate
