

Albert L. June

October 3, 1928 - October 13, 2008

Albert L. "Corky" June, 80, of Jamesville, New York, died Monday, October 13, 2008 at Loretto in Syracuse, New York. Born in Syracuse, New York, he retired from F. H. Cobb. He was an outdoorsman, enjoying hunting and fishing. He was predeceased by his wife, Gertrude Pfeiffer June in 2003 and son, John Albert June in 1999.

Corky is survived by a beloved daughter-in-law, Joanne S. June of Manlius, new York; one sister, Hazel Anderson of Jamesville, New York; five grandchildren, Jennifer Beasley, Alyssa Anastasiou, John A. June Jr., Annie June-Doyle and Jimmy June; five great-granddaughters, Bella and Samantha Beasley, Zoey Anastasiou, Audrey and Ava Doyle; several nieces and nephews.

Calling Hours: Thursday, October 16, 2008, 12:00 noon - 1:00 p.m. at Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, 4612 S. Salina Street, Syracuse, New York.

Funeral Service: Thursday, October 16, 2008, 1:00 p.m. at Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, 4612 S. Salina Street, Syracuse, New York.

Burial: St. Mary's Cemetery, 4100 E. Genesee Street, Dewitt, New York.

Tribute Wall

“ JoAnne sorry to hear about Corkys death, as we all know he was really a great guy. He will be deeply missed. At preseent I am in Falls Church, Virginia. Sorry cannot make any services. Will be back in Syracuse on Monday 10/21. If you would like to chat give me a call 4635056. RayDXIKY

October 14, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Ill always remember how He cared so much for people, and pets. He was so considerate of others, even if he didn't really know you at all. He will be missed and thought about often. Rest in Peace Corky!

October 14, 2008 at 12:00 AM