Tribute Wall

“ Sandy,
*I am sorry for your loss. Please know you are in my thoughts as you walk through this time of grief, and I know that you understand you do not walk it alone.
May the Lord comfort you and your family in a very special way at this time of loss.
In Christ
Marla*

“ Ida, Gene, Marilyn, Sandy, David and all,
*We are so sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. I'm sorry that we could not make it up there at this time. We will visit this spring/summer. Uncle Bert will be hard to forget. He will always in my mind be my mother's baby brother.
Love to you all,
Bill and Joanne French*

“ Bert was a good neighbor and friend when we lived on Eager Road. He kept us supplied with beef and pork and was always cheerful and friendly. We send sympathy to the family who will have fond memories of Bert as a father, husband, community and church member.

Sincerely, Marcia, Carl, Kirstin and Tracy

“ Will miss "Bert" at the nursing home as he was a joy when everyone participated in activities and he always liked to have fun, especially when we saw each other - we tried to see who could "finger shoot" who first.

Our sincere condolences to you and yours Ida, we will also miss seeing you seeing you daily at Iroquois and sharing our goodies of the day (tomatoes) outside while enjoying the weather.
