“ The passing of Aunt Alma has left a pain in not only My heart but the hearts if all who loved her. She was always a very warm and loving lady whom cared Deeply for everyone. To Roseann and Kenny you were here heart for sure. Every conversation I had with her always included the both of you. I have many find memories if her. She sang at my wedding filling me with such Emotion. God knows how much I am going to miss her. I am blessed that her and I were able to build a bond, we spent time together every Monday and Wednesday's having lunch. Auntie I love you, thank you for always including me in your heart. I have no doubt that your in heaven, God has saved that special place waiting for you to arrive. With sincere love always.
