

Angela E. Hantke

January 6, 1954 - February 24, 2018

Angela E. Hantke, 64, of Syracuse, NY, passed away Saturday, February 24, 2018 at Upstate University Hospital.

Angela was born on January 6, 1954, in Landshut, Germany, the daughter of the late Ernst and Erna Stecher Hantke. She worked for the Hotel Syracuse for over 20 years and later worked at the University Sheraton. Angela enjoyed frequent trips to the casino, reading and caring for her yard. Most importantly was spending time with her family and friends.

She is survived by her siblings, Gisela (John) Long, Siegfried (Joan) Hantke, Paul Hantke, and Roswitha Hantke; several nieces and nephews.

Services will be private.

Memorial contributions can be made to Upstate Cancer Center, 750 E. Adams Street, Syracuse, NY 13210.

“ My condolences for you ,her family ,may all your happiest memories bring peace to your hearts
Sincerely, Diana J Perry

Gela, I know your listening as I truly believe you still hear and see I love you ,your friendship is and will always be my blessing. Although we never owned Hacienda de Sol I know you're relaxing by the pool with your very own pool boy sipping cocktails smiling while someone else is caring for the gardens and so you know your gifts are piling up on Slotomania I never stopped sending them and never will.

“ I had worked with Gela over 10 years at the Sheraton Hotel. Gela's 1st. conversation with me was " You're wearing the ugliest uniform I've ever seen, and I'm not ever gonna wear a nasty polyester jacket to work". I immediately knew I was going to love working with Gela. Everyone enjoyed working with Gela, her thoughtfulness with associates and clientele was stellar. I will miss Gela's wry wit, her special kind of "OCD", and genuine heart.....she always told me when I was getting "snappish". Sending my/our deepest sympathy to the Hantke Family. I hope you find comfort in the knowledge that Gela was loved by many.

“ Joan and family
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.
Please accept my condolences.

“ I met Gayla six years ago when I fell in love with her niece. She was quiet and reserved. One could just tell that she loved her family very much and that they were very important in her world. May you rest in piece and enjoy all the rewards of the afterlife.
