

Ardell Webster

November 17, 1923 - October 31, 2014

Ardell Webster, 90, died peacefully at home on Friday with her husband and family by her side. She has been a Valley resident most of her life. Ardell was predeceased by her first husband, Wendell Van Horn in 1983 and her brothers Henry and Carl Heterbring. Ardell is survived by her loving husband, Marshall Webster and five daughters, Carole Jovan (Jerry) of Syracuse, Barb Giarrosso (Bill) of Liverpool, Susie Linehan (Dave) of Sacramento, Cal, Elly (Art Gladstone) Pollock of Fairmount and Shirley Garzone of LaFayette, GA. She also has 16 grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren, several great-great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews who loved her dearly and she always made them a priority. Hamburgers, cookies and pies were Gran's specialty for the grandkids and they enjoyed "hanging" at her home with cousins. Ardell was a graduate of Onondaga Valley Academy Class of 1942. Ardell was employed at Corcoran High School for many years. She was a member of Valley Presbyterian and later, Elmwood Presbyterian Church. She and Marshall enjoyed traveling for several years. She also enjoyed shopping and loved Disney World. In 1945, Ardell survived a mid-air plane collision. In the 1960's she was diagnosed with ovarian cancer and amazingly survived a disease that to this day is a deadly form of cancer. A survivor to be sure. Calling hours will be Tuesday, noon to 2 p.m. with services to follow at 2 p.m. at Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, Inc., 4612 S. Salina Street, Syracuse. Burial will be in the Onondaga Valley Cemetery.

“ Carole, Barb, Sue, Elly and Shirley: Your Mom was one of the sweetest people I remember while growing up. My kids also had the benefit of her always smiling face when they saw her on the street. My thoughts and prayers are with you all and Marshall. Hope you can find comfort and strength in each other.
