“ I was terribly saddened to learn of my sister's passing. As the youngest of eight siblings in her family, I am now the only one remaining. I vividly remember her children and hold them dear. Any contact by family members would be most welcome. Rest In Peace sweet lady.

“ It's so wonderful to recall all the special times we had together, when we laughed about all the good times and hashed out the not so good times. We loved your Tuna & Noodle bake and try to get it to taste as good as yours to this day. Of coarse you know how much you are loved and missed as you knew the love you have always felt. Thanks for all the words of wisdom you shared and always taking the time to listen. There is no time that will heal the missing you. We miss you everyday.Love to you always...

“ Mom as it nears Mother's Day I wish you were here for me to visit. You are always in my thoughts with every passing day. At the cemetery it looks so lonely, cold and forgotten for everyone. Miss you so much.

“ With the holidays approaching you are in our thoughts. We are gathering together in Oregon this Thanksgiving and we will be thinking of you. Dawn, Dave, the boys, John Jay, Donny, Heidi, Darby, Ryan, our children, Billy, Colleen and their boys. Gram, you would be so elated to see your son with his grandchildren. He is so happy to spend as much time with them as he can. They are his world. It will be so nice to spend time with the family. It doesn't happen often, but it feels good to connect with everyone. We wish you could be there like the last time we all got together for the holidays. You are not forgotten and you are ALWAYS in our thoughts.

“ I see no one has kept up with lighting candles for you except me. The Holidays are coming around again and you will be missed again. You are still in my thoughts at all times. As usual I am the only one who has kept you that way. Miss you, Mary “ Mom, I can't beleive I am the only one who has taken time to remember you. Everyone was so quick when you died to write all the nice things about you where are they now?? How fast people forget. How sad especially your loving sons.

“ Mom it is going on a year now since you left our lives and I miss you very much. You don't know how many times I reach for the phone to call you. As of Sept 23 the link between us was taken from me and I hope she is with you, by your side. Lacie went down hill after I was told she had sugar. I did everything in my power to try to get her back to her old self. She was the best dog ever. Dr. Dodge said you needed her so I let her go. I am so glad she touched our lives. Miss you “ Merry Christmas grandma. We are having a green Christmas as you probably already know because you are looking down on all of us. For some reason it never feels/seems like Christmas if we don't have snow.Its too bad someone had to send out an email that wasn't necessary or appropriate for this web-site. That message made all your candles go away. Many people were writing to you and saying how much you meant to them and how much they miss you. Well hope you are having a wonderful Christmas with everyone in Heaven !!!

“*"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; I a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silent, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time for peace."*ECCLESIASTES 3: 1-8 I miss you and will always love you mom.
