“ I remember you volunteering at Loretto. You were a very sensitive, gentle, and loving soul. It's been many years but I remember you like it was just yesterday.

“ I have very fond memories of Bernie and Aunt Bertha coming to visit us when we were children. We lived in Borodino with our parents, George and Belle Dye. Memories of when she came to graduations, weddings, etc. for my family. She was just the sweetest lady to all of us kids. She will be terribly missed.

“ My fond memory of Aunt Bernie is when George & I were married. Aunt Bernie made the trip all the way from upstate NY to Lanham, Maryland to attend our wedding (1973). Afterward, she drove George's siblings back to NY with a stopover in Amish country PA. Although I had limited contact with Aunt Bernie, the time I did and the memories that family members share are so precious of a well-loved soul. God bless. See you again in heaven!
