“ Dorothy Czajak wishes to give her heartfelt sympathy for Beverly and family. Dorothy has been sick but had intended to go up and see Beverly but couldn't get there. She remembers Beverly when she was a little girl playing on Willis Ave. Dorothy would be on her way to Porter School at the time. Our condolences to the family.

“ I will always remember Beverly as a wonderfully warm and caring woman who wore a continual smile on her face. She was a woman always willing to help those around her and put others' needs above her own. She bore her illness without complaint and kept her smile in place throughout its duration. May you rest in peace
