“ So sorry to wake this morning and read about my high school classmate. I haven't seen Carl since graduation but what has always remained in my memory when thinking back on the people I walked the OCS hallways with was his infectious grin. When I saw his photo, there it was, that same smile. Here's to your peace Carl Abbott. May the warmth of your smile forever enfold your family.

*“ My prayers and thoughts to Kristen, Andrew and Lindsay and all the Abbott family.
My first memory of Carl is from church and Sunday school. Carl was this little blond boy who with his brother Craig giggling in church. And how his family was like mine. All of these kids and his Mom was taller than his Dad. Carl always smiled. Such a good guy will be missed and remembered fondly. With a smile on our face.
Love, to you and your family Kristen.

*“ I am sorry this has happened to your family. Death is a hard pill to swallow although it is a common place occurrence. I hope this scripture affects you the way it has me: *"The God who made the world and all the things in it, being, as he is Lord heaven and earth, does not dwell in handmade temples; nor is he served by human hands as if he needed anything, because he himself gives to all people life and breath and all things.\" Our creator will give your Carl back his breath.

*“ Dear Abbott Family,
Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. In order to cope, you will be comforted by God's promise at Acts 24:15.*
