“ Cathy will be missed dearly. Cath and I were married years ago and though now divorced, we have always maintained a close friendship through the years. This is just an example of the capacity Cathy had for goodness, love, friendship, and family. She fought many battles in life, primarily tied to her health - I have always had a great deal of respect for her fortitude and drive to get through life with a sense of humor and smile.

Good-bye Cath, we will all miss you.
