

Cheryl "Bedite" R. Guilfoyle

April 27, 1951 - February 2, 2018

Cheryl "Bedite" R. Guilfoyle, 66, of Syracuse, passed away unexpectedly at home on Friday, February 2, 2018. Born in Syracuse, she was one of twelve children born to the late Calvin and Ruth Sampson Gibson.

Cheryl had many passions, but none more important than her family. She loved to watch her great-granddaughter, go to lunch with her granddaughter, Jennifer, on Fridays, and travel to Turning Stone with her sisters. Cheryl was also an amazing cook, loved Elvis, and enjoyed going antiquing with her husband. She was very patriotic and was always there to help people.

She is survived by her loving husband, Philip J. Guilfoyle; daughter, Kathy; grandchildren, Jennifer (Charles Garbutt) Andrews, Cameron (Dana Hill) Tillich, and Miranda Tillich; great-granddaughter, Amelia Tillich; and many brothers and sisters. She was predeceased by a daughter, Sharon Guilfoyle, in 2006.

Calling hours will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, February 6, 2018, at Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, 4612 S. Salina Street, Syracuse, NY 13205.

“ Dear Ootsie, Kathy and Grandchildren, We are so sad to hear of Bedite's passing. She has been a cousin, school mate and lifelong cherished friend. She and her siblings always hug and thank my Mom (and Dad) for introducing Ruth to Cal, saying they wouldn't be here if it wasn't for my parents introducing their parents to one another. Many, many memories between our families.

With our deepest sympathy and much love to you all.
