“ Cheri- You were a great neighbor and a good friend. Thank you for all the support you gave to me while my father was sick all those years. Thank you for our talks and your advice and suggestions which touched my life and helped me to become part of the person I am today. You always welcomed me into your home, even though Tracie and I caused you so much grief when we used to tease Trisha all summer vacation. I will miss your "hello wave" from your backyard deck to mine and all the banter over the fence. I have many fond memories and will think of you often.

December 14, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Tracie & Trisha, I only met your Mom a few times, but knew immediately what a kind, compassionate person she was just by looking in her eyes. She had the warmest smile and I will never forget our 'chats'. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family!
