“ We are so sorry to hear about Chris. She was truly a beautiful person with an unmatching wit, character, and personality. Even as a child she had the most incredible smile and was always a happy, positive person. She will be missed for her genuine passion for life and family. We feel blessed to have been known Chrissy and she will live on in our hearts forever.

“ From me knowing Christine in cosmetology school to David knowing her at Constellation - Christine was a joy to know. She was a passionate, loving person with an infectious smile, wittiness and sense of humor. She impacted the people who were privileged to know her simply by being herself. Our hearts ache for her loss, but rejoice in the knowledge we will see her again some day.

We are praying for comfort and peace for Ed and her family,

Kelli Raymond
