He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth "Monk" Spicer in 2008 and brother, Robert Spicer in 1989. Calling hours will be from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 25, 2014 at Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, Inc. 2584 Field Lane, LaFayette, New York 13084. “ Uncle Chris you will be missed very much! It seems just like yesterday we were all down at the garage hanging out during deer season, telling stories, laughing and having a good old time, but now your gone and we all miss you so much! We know it wasn't your time to go, but god was looking for a good farmer to watch over his land and you were the one he chose! Some day we will all be back together but for now rest in peace Uncle Chris Love Jason & Kelsey

“ To the spicer family Our thoughts and prayers to the family. Chris is in God's hands now and looking down on your family and friends steering them in the right direction. I ask god why he takes the good ones. No answer. So I had a lot of good times with chris.so I saw this poem that will help ease the pain. Why did you have to go and die? We don't want to have to say goodbye. God must have thought that you were special one to take away. But couldn't he have waited for another day? God's looking after you know. High up in the sky . up there where all the angels lie.you wouldn't have wanted us to make a fuss.after all you're still down here with us. Just because we can't see you doesn't mean you're not here. We know you are somewhere very very near. We love you so much but it's time to say goodbye my friend. Because your life here on earth has come to an end. R.I.P CHRIS. YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN
