“ When I was a child, Connie babysat for us. It probaly was only one time (I can't imagine why my parents went away), but I remember what a fun night it was! She played games, and I especially remember dancing around the kitchen table. Connie was part of the neighborhood that has always ""been here"". I have been thinking of the Plumpton family.Loosing a sister...it must be very hard, I will remember her. Karen Hoke Jerome

“ As a child, I was raised in a Foster Home. This is when I first met Connie at age 11. As an adult, I have often thought of Connie and all the fun we would have playing games and doing playful things that would stay with me forever! I missed Connie and those fun times. Now, I will miss her more, but look forward to seeing her again someday through those pearly gates! RIP Connie.
