“Cindy was our neighbor for several years in Syracuse. We live on Phelps Pl. She was always friendly and cheerful. We remember her dog Rosie and how special he was to her. Recently I ran into her a few times at CVS in Manlius. May the Lord bless her as she is with Him.

“The Bernardelli Family:

My sincerest condolences on the loss of your most beloved aunt and cousin. Your sense of loss and feelings of sadness must be overwhelming. Made me happy to learn that Cindy remained an active worshiper at St. James Roman Catholic church.

Cindy's older brother, "Chet", and I were best friends though-out high school as well as neighbors at Phelps Place & Sunrise Drive. Seeing Cindy and her parents was, always, a happy and joyful occasion.

May everyone's period of bereavement and grief be, mercifully, short.

God bless you all!

“Dearest family of Cindy, I am so sorry for your loss. I met Cindy when she was the shoe specialist at Target in Fayetteville. We kept up our friendship since then. She was always optimistic and would help me when I was having a tough time. I helped her back! She is an amazing woman! My heart aches for the beautiful person I call my good friend! Rest Easy dearest one....

A few of the Claire's Gang. Cindy was always the life of the party and was able to get people laughing, no matter what kind of day she had. Heaven is so lucky to have her, although we are all at a loss without her in our lives anymore. RIP Cindy

“ I have known Cindy for over 20 yrs and have never seen her without a smile on her face even in the toughest of times. My fondest memory of her is when my sons were small we took them apple picking, how they loved their Aunt Cinny. She is the strongest, kindest, most compassionate person I have ever known. I miss you my Dear Friend. TWMA ❤️
