“ My condolences to "Brucie" and the Miller/Stillman clans. Cindy was a star; a fun sailor; someone you could count on and a longterm member of our Skaneateles "goodtimes" cottage swim group. I will miss my good friend and her positive jibes. She was an outstanding child welfare social worker, and helped many children and their families struggling with crisis events. She and her husband hosted fantastic Christmas celebrations at their lovely home for many years. We howled at many Syracuse football and basketball events and followed the team to Florida. Cindy had a religious spirit and looked out for the welfare of many. I will miss our gambling adventures and the fun of birthday luncheons. Goodbye good friends Gloria Simmons Gallivan, Suzie Burns Albert, Annie O'Brien, and now Cindy.

“ Cousin Cynthia joined the Carroll family reunion every summer in Sandbridge, Va. She and Bruce would arrive with their big tubes and card games, after stopping at Dairy Queen, ready to party and reminisce about the old days. I know she is now with many members of the Savage/ Byrnes families.
