“ So sorry to hear about your loved one. My mother was the same age when I lost her and know of the heartache that is left behind. I hope that you can find comfort from God's promise to soon undo all "tears, pain, mourning and death" Rev. 21:4. May you find strength in the support and love of family and friends.

With sympathy,

D. Coty

“ Bud,
My sincere sympathy is extended to you and Linda on the loss of your brother Dan. I remember the good times we had as kids in the Valley, which seems like yesterday but instead it''''''s been 50 years ago. It''''''s been almost that long since we last saw each other. I remember Dan as the baby in your family and that he was very religious growing up. It looks like his beliefs served him well in life as evidenced by the comments people have written in this guest book. Please find comfort in knowing that his suffering is over and Dan is in a better place now.

Our sincere condolences,

The Mahaney brothers Tim, Mike, Kevin, Brian, and Jim

“ Dan, You were a great man and you will be missed. I am so glad I got to know you and we had all the times we shared. From you making me taste nasty demos to saving me coke points to talking of our pets, you were always happy and a great man. Even when you got sick you were still smiling. Plus, we were alumni together. That's a connection we will always have. You will be missed, friend. I hope you find peace in heaven with your family and your pets passed :)

“ So so many memories of Dan. Dan often referred to me as Sarah's grandmother(as the puppy Sarah was a gift from my family). Several of his CGH friends knew Dan would be an excellent companion for Sarah. Dan kept in touch with his CGH friends thru email, cards, and sometimes dinner at Danzer's. Dan was a good friend and knew how to listen and care for everyone. I admire Dan's devotion to his parents. Condolences to his sister and brother.
