“ I am reminded of a little song that we used to sing at the close of Girl Scout and Campfire Girl campfires: "Now run along home, and jump into bed; say your prayers and cover your head. You dream of me and I'll dream of you, and we will have sweet dreams, the whole night through." Deb, we'll see you in the morning. We love you.

“ Debbiel remember the jokes and discussion we had. I remain impressed about your intellect, wit and balanced view of this word. I did also notice your loneliness during the icy cold winter of 2003 and your wishes to gain another job, where you could use tremendous skills. When I discussed a job opportunity in Australia, you said that you did not want to leave your family and dog behind. But you left anyway, without saying bye. I say hello to you from down under in Australia to you in heaven above. Beat

“ Dear Debbie, I was just thinking about you when I heard you were in the hospital, and shocked to here how sick you were. I will miss you every 3 months, when it was time to do your hair. I know God has a special angel to be with you. I will never forget all the laughs and fun that we had thru the years, especially girls week-end they certainly were memorable. May peace be with you! Till we meet again....

“ Jinnie, My deepest regrets to you on hearing of your tremendous loss of your daughter. I know in what you have shared about Debbie with Anne and I that she has struggled in parts of her life. Perhaps there is some solace that there are no evils and strifes where she is now and that she is care-free and happy. I believe there is nothing greater than a parent losing a child...please know that my thoughts and prayers are for you and your family during this time of loss. Keep in touch. OXOXOXOX Tammy

April 17, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ Hi, I know that you're still going to be trying to look out for me, and keep me out of harm's way. Be patient with me! I'll cherish all those good times we had together, and the friendship that endured for thirty years and across many miles. You've been my friend, my sister, my co-conspirator, my muse. I never have quite figured out which one of us was supposed to be the adult, as many times as you tried to counsel me. I wish we had more time. I promise that my daughter will still get to know about her "Auntie Deb," and hear the stories about the fun we had (not) growing up together. Godspeed, and be well. We all love you very much. Bob, Sandi, and Giullianna Giarrusso

“ My thoughts go out to Debby's family. She was a very thoughtful, loving, and caring person. I worked for her at Sensis. There are many of us here with sad hearts here today.

April 17, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ We will always remember Debbie's infectious laughter and the twinkle in her eyes! Our first year away at college were made a little easier by Debbie when she would send us cards and letters telling us to ""hang in there"". May the warmth and joy and peace of heaven be embracing you...

April 17, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ Memories of you remain to inspire us, to enrich us, and to remind us of the pleasures of hearing your laughter and joy. Rest in peace, Debby. From your friends and co-workers at Sensis.

April 17, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ May I learn by your example by loving as much as you. I can only hope I can be half the role model you were to the girls. Tell Matt I'm good for T and we are happy. Take care of each other. I love you and miss you.

April 17, 2003 at 12:00 AM

“ From a co-worker at Sensis: First, my deepest sympathy to Deb's family. She loved you all so much. She told us all about you, especially her nieces, and let us share that happy part of her life. When Deb hired me here at Sensis, she took me out of my worst job and gave me my best job. For that, I am always thankfully mindful of her every day at work. Her attitude here was very positive. She worked hard, laughed with us, and her positive attitude was contagious. I wish her peace.
