“ Uncle Dexter, you were indeed a funny man. You always made me smile. I had the best phone conversation with you a short time ago chatting about the past. I'll never forget it. May you find peace and serenity in your new life. God Bless You.P.S. Whomever left the nice comment FOR me, I appreciate it. But who are you?

“ I've lived across the street from Dexter since 1982, I believe. He was a wonderful neighbor and I used to enjoy talking to him on the street. I will definitely miss him. He is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dex was a man of laughter & always had a story to tell, & a very proud Scottish man indeed!! He & his wife Ida found a special place in my heart. I used to look after them as a neighbor, as if they were my own parents. But life moved me on & I left Watson Road, but I always brought the memories with me. May he rest in peace & god bless his scottish soul..
