“ Having the chance to have met a nice lady who is well-liked -- very much loved by family and friends. Although I didn't know her well, I enjoyed hearing about and getting to know her at a few family gatherings. From what I found out about her, she lived a full life. May she rest in peace.

“ To my dear friend, Joyce, and her family...I only met your mother once - this past summer when the gang was coming to Myrtle Beach for a reunion. But, Joyce, you talked so often of your Mom's willingness to just get out there and live life to the fullest. That's a gift to have and I know it's a gift she gave to all of you. You have my deepest sympathies and my prayers. I know you Mom will be missed. But I also know how much she was loved by her family and friends while she was here.

“ Doris was a wonderful lady and we will certainly remember her fondly. We have enjoyed talking and participating in church events with her over the years. We have a picture of her dressed as a “Red Hat Society Lady” at a Halloween party in 2008, and Sr. Pat was a pumpkin. We love ya, Doris !!

“ There are no words to express the love I felt for Doris. She was a woman of “light”, everywhere she went she brought a ray of sunshine. My memories are rich of her and her daughter volunteering at Loretto. She was the most giving person, the minute you met her you became family. She will be in my heart always, she loved and was loved by many. Peace.

“ Doris was a good friend of my mom's (Helen Holt)and when I moved back to Syracuse in 2000 and joined the Updowntowners Doris was one of the first people to recognize me and call me Patty which was my childhood name. When the Updowntowners did the St Pats parade we would stop our float to let Doris on no matter where we were along the parade route. We will miss her warm smile.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Doris passing. She was such a dear, wonderful lady whom we always enjoyed seeing at UDT events. I know you will all miss her very much as I do my Mom but the memories will be so wonderful. We are in Florida and won't be able to make calling hours but I will put her name in our church book here and remember her in our prayers.

“ Aunt Doris was a one of a kind person who will be sorely missed. God now has an excellent helper up there to do all his running around, and making all the crafts. I am sure she is on the move up there in Heaven.
