“ We remember Doris as being a great neighbor. She would come around the neighborhood collecting for the Cancer Society, always thinking of trying to help others. She was always very friendly. She will be greatly missed.

“ Alexander Finlay a resident of Loretto introduced my mother and me to Doris when we came visiting at Loretto. My mother & I had the priviledge of getting to know Doris and looked forward to seeing her smiling face. Doris touched my heart, as she always kept herself looking so very pretty. Her hair was always ""done"" and her nails were manicured. She always looked like what I feel a true ""lady"" should look like regardless of age or physical condition. My thoughts and prayers are with her family for their loss. I know I will miss her dearly

“ I have been with Doris' grandson Scott Jr for 10 years. The whole time I knew her, grandma always made me feel like part of the family. The day we got engaged she pulled me aside and with tears in her eyes she told me how happy she was that her grandson finally wised up and choose to marry me! I'll never forget how that made me feel. I love you Grandma-Tamica
