“ Dan, we are all thinking of you at this time. I signed the guest book, then realized that I could "light a candle", too, in honor of your mother. I am sure she rests with God now after a long & fruitful life. Please extend our sympathy to your family. Love from Barbara, Jack, Heather and Kelsey

“ Hi Gram, I'm not so sure exactly what to say here. I know I'm not the only one who is going to miss you. You were always so happy, not even that but bright. You had this glow about you that always was so calming and soothing. Even during your last days I wasn't scared. Just a little bit sad. Say hi to grampa for me... and I'll be seeing you... Love you gram

“Grama, You were a wonderful grandmother to me, and all of your grandchildren. You were always so loving and supportive. I loved the way you would wink your eye when you smiled and your face would sparkle with life. Even as you were close to death you worried about how your baby Caleb would be after you left us. Always thinking of others. I will never forget you and I will talk of you often to my children so they remember what a wonderful great-grama they had. Love you Grama.

“Aunt Dorothy, your wonderful sense of humor and terrific perspective on the world, always made me appreciate the things I had in life. I will always cherish your memory. Now you can be with Bernie and Dick and I know you will be laughing and sharing your love with them. God Bless you.
