Tribute Wall

“ I last saw Dougie in the autumn of 1998.He was a good friend of my cousin, Chuck Buckley,and his entire family.
Although I only saw Doug a few times while visiting New York,I have always remembered him.He was very kind and intelligent.A person is best gauged by the number of friends that they have,and Doug had multitudes of friends.He meant so much to my family up there,and to so many others,I am certain.
To his family and children...continue to love,laugh,and smile in the company of those around you,just as Doug did..... God Bless everyone.

“ On behalf of Doug's entire family, we'd like to say thank you for all the love and support of those who loved Doug and those who knew one of us and have expressed their sympathy in many ways. A special thanks to the Class of '87, Sheet Metal Local #58 and the CSX family.

Listen to the lyrics by Tracy Lawrence "Find out who your friends are" and you'll know Doug fully embraced that...he was "that guy" that you called when no one else picked up the phone.

Doug did a lot of things for a lot of people with no questions asked. He's asking you now to watch out for his two boys, if you see they need a hand, be there for them in Doug's name.
