“ To Dougs loved ones, I could write paragraphs of all our stories growing up as best friends and loved you as a brother. As all of us remember the good days it will be remembered of your mothers milk machine and all the neighborhood kids eating cookies together at the Peases' and of your dad a dad to many of us who had lost theirs. The first thoughts I recollected of you when I heard the news was stunned and your mothers' voice calling you outdoors when we were in the old block Dougie, Dougie, Dougie, Doug!

“ I was so saddened by this news because I watched this young child grow up into a man. Always joyous happy and free. I can only say that GOD must have had a plan for him and that plan we will never know. It's between the two of them and not for us to say. My heart goes out to his mom, brother and sisters. Know that I'm praying that you will find some sort of comfort. I love you all and I feel your pain. God Bless. Michelle (Sue)
