“ Pops you have been the best. When there was anything bothering you, never did you take it out on the family, instead you, d go outside and walk around the house talking to your self, thats how you worked it out. I, ll always remember how great a dad you were. Your first born B.J.

“ I just like my sister Brenda was not born into this family, but however grandpa made me and my sister part of the Taylor family, and for that words cannot express how great of a man, a father and a grandfather he truly was. I remember he would always look at me and shake his head and say "" Teddy your the death of me"" and those faces that he always made who could forget them. So now as i keep grandpa in my heart nothing could ever replace how much he meant to me. I may not have been born into this family but i'm extremely honored and grateful to be a part of it. grandpa I love you... now and forever! Dad my heart and sympathy go out to you and the taylor family i want to say thank you for making me apart of it. love always Ted

“ I was not born into the Taylor family but was lucky enough to be made a part of the family through marriage. I will always remember grandpa's noises and grunts especailly when you kissed and hugged him goodbye they always made me giggle. I can't look at my dad (Frank) and not see grandpa in a lot of ways. He will be missed. To my family many hugs and to you dad the guy who is always there when I need him (You definitely came from good stock)... I love you! Brenda Brenda Brenda

“ I can remember spending alot of time at grandfathers house when I was young. Sadly, after my father's death (Garry Taylor) we kind of lost touch with his side of the family. I visited a few times, nowhere near enough. If only we could go back in time and make up for things that we regret. I would be sure to keep in better touch with my fathers family. GRANDFATHER, SAY HI TO DAD FOR ME, I AM GLAD THAT YOU ARE TOGETHER UP THERE!!!!!! To the rest of the family, I am so sorry for the loss of such a great man and I will see you all at the funeral. GOD BLESS!!!!!!!!!!

“ Earl Taylor is my father and my friend. I will miss him beyond words. He was always a hard working man that did the best he could to provide a good life for his family. He always put us his kids ahead of his wants and needs before him self. My Mom and dad with help from my grandpa built the house that I grew up in from the ground up. He never called a service man for anything. He would work all day and come home and repair the furnace he would take apart the car and fix it didn't matter what the problem was he could fix anything. Those times I remember so well because I was there helping him do everthing as well and so was my brothers Earl and Garry. His hard working ethics is what has molded me into the man that I am today and i will forever love him for shareing all of those moments with me and will never forget all of the great time we shared... I love you papa Frank I hope you were as proud of me as I am of you.

“ I never really got to know Earl, he was my sisters grandfather. (Vikki, Missy, and Kelisha) But I can say he and Grandma both always made me feel apart of the family. I used to get x-mas cards and such just the same as the girls. From what I have read from everyones memories of him, he was one of a kind. And will never be forgotten. And from my family to yours, our deepest sympathies.

“ I am Earl's granddaughter. He was a very good grandfather, he could always make me smile no matter what wether he was making goofy sounds or just talking to me. He was an amazing person and i believe that there is a lot of him in my father from his sillyness to when he was being serious and im glad for that. Grandpa Taylor will forever and always be in my heart and mind. Love always -Terry

“ No matter what, whenever my grandpa asked me to scratch his back thats what I did. He made faces at everyone all the time making them smile and laugh. He always seemed very happy with his life to me. As far as i know my grandpa is the smartest guy ever and has always shown strength within him even if he was having a hard time. I love him so much and he will always be in my thoughts. I'll always love you grandpa ~Danielle~
