“ We feel so blessed to have known Edna. She always treated us like members of her own family, and we feel that way about her also. Her presence will be missed at all our extended family gatherings. We are so grateful to Hazel, Helen & Emma for sharing their wonderful mother with us.

Our thoughts are with her daughters and grandchildren, Paul & his family, and the many others who loved and will miss her.

“ I had the great pleasure of meeting Grandma Edna at Jean's wedding in Idaho. She was an amazing woman, full of vim and vigor, and had a beautiful smile to go along with those sparkling eyes. The love she had in her heart for her family was truly a sight to see. And the love they had for her was just as evident! I am so happy I was blessed with the opportunity of spending even a little bit of time with her.

Much love and warm regards,
Christie

“ I soooo loved this lady. She had strength, compassion, and understanding that she really became to 4 boys what no one could be under circumstances she found herself. I cannot begin to say how much I loved and thought of her. On behalf of the youngest of the step-sons I say God called you home Edna and please say Hi to mom for us. I now have 2 angels looking out for me so I am in the best place any person could be. Thank you for sharing your love with us and my dad!
