“ My thoughts and prayers go to Uncle Eddie and my condolences are with all my cousins and their families Who I never get to see anymore. Uncle Eddie was always a kind and gentle man to me. He always had one question for me when ever I saw him... Very sincerely "Are you still livin the good life?" It was a simple question which could be interpreted so many ways and always made me think.. how does he mean that ? Like Church? Like the Frank Sinatra song? Relative to what? I don't think I ever answered it from the same reference in my mind as the last time I saw him. That said it is one I still ask myself and remember him asking me when I do for some reason. I'm sure Uncle Eddie is now livin the good Life with Nanna and Popoo.

“ I was little and would visit all the Heffernans in Skaneateles and we would run to the creek to catch frogs. Uncle Eddie loved his family and was very proud of them all. He is in a better, more forgiving world . Love, Patti,Mike and Celia
