“ hi grammy; I've been thinking a lot about you lately, i wish i could see you again. In one month from the 8th will be three years and it's still so hard to believe your not here with us. I ended up moving to Maine a lot sooner than i thought i was going to, i live with Stephen and his family and we want to move out by Christmas. I am pregnant and due in May, i wish you were here still so that my child could be around you. I'm coming to New York in July and hopefully i can get down to your grave stone. I am still going to school, it is my Senior year and I'm still in my CNA program, it got a lot harder but i know most of the material from last years class. Can you watch over me and the baby and my relationship with Stephen and just help me through everything, I've been really stressed out with a lot of things and i feel bad because i take it out on Stephen and things he does that i know he is working on improving i just freak out because it just upsets me. I just randomly start crying and he tells me baby please don't cry anymore and i tell him i miss you so much. i'll keep you in touch and let you know how im doing and the baby is doing. take care of yourself up there and remember all of us are here thinking of you and missing you very much. I love you so much grammy and i miss you so much grammy i can't believe that it's almost been three years. please gram watch over the baby and I and the rest of the family. i love you gram

“ To the family that is left to miss her, There will always be an empty place in our hearts where Ernestine used to be. We now have to fill that spot with prayers and memories of all the good times we have spent with her. I think she must have knit a dozen pairs of mittens and little hats for the kids in our family, I'll bet she knitted some for most of you. She loved to knit little sweaters for the girl grandchildren. She made Sue a quilt for Christmas when Sue was three or four. Sue still has it but it has some holes in it from all the washings it had. She'll never part with it. Ernestine rest easy and peaceful. Your life in this world was hard. Now you have been taken to heaven where you will have no more sorrows. Bye Mom we love you.

“Grimmis, There is not enough space on here for me to write about all the great times we had together. I loved every part of having you raise me. I am trying so hard to except the fact that I am not going to see you and give you a big eskamo kiss or blow you a big kiss good by threw the window and see you give me a big smile. Your hugs they just made evrything better. Who am I going to call when I need someone just to listen? Who am I going to get a big hug from when I am having a bad day? Grimmis I wish that I did not leave you and move to California I am so sad that I left you. I missed you everyday that I was gone. I loved to call you and just listen to you tell me what was going on with everyone lol. When I moved back home we had so many plans. Atleast we made it to Walmart. It was so hard for you that day but you went cause you new it was important to me, but this damn cancer had to ruin everything. You put up a great fight Gram but you always did with everything you ever did. I am going to try really hard these holiday to make the foods that you did the banana bread for Jason. the pumkin pie and the Apple Pie for me, and yes I remember an Apple pie with out Cheeze is like a kiss with out a squeeze. Gram I love you and I am going to get threw this because you made me a strong person that can handle tough situations. Gram I know that I am you in someways I catch myself sometimes sounding just like you, and it makes me laugh every single time. I love you Grammy... You were the best. I have been blessed to have you in my life. I am just not sure how mylife is going to be with out having you by myside. Just know Gram I love you....and I will see you someday you can rest know.
