“ Ethel was such a funny woman that said whatever came to her. She had a way of making me laugh everyday. Ethel didn't really enjoy being in groups but being the recreator that I am, and my constant encouragement she always seemed to be in my groups interacting with others with a beautiful smile on her face and a book always in her hand. Ethel you will be missed, but you are now home. God Bless

“ Ethel was always friendly to me when I said hello, however, she wasn't one to chat with clergy for too long! She was always reading and seemed to be content when doing so. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I will see you at the service on the 2nd. Blessings, Rev. Roberta Yackel

“ My mother, Eleanor Miller, and I would like to express our sympathy to you in your loss of Ethel. My mom also resides on the 8th floor of Loretto. My mom was quite upset on learning of Ethel's passing. Ethel was almost always reading when I saw her and I'd ask her what her new book was. She was a lovely lady who my mom enjoyed knowing. I know that my mom will dearly miss Ethel. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in your loss.
