“ She was always there for me when i needed a hug, or even just a friend to be with. She cooked the best meals, and was the centerpiece that held our lives together. I will never forget my grandmother. One of my funniest memories of her was when I slept over at her house one night, and I woke up before her. I was only about 5 and I couldn't wait for her to make me one of her famous breakfasts. I waited about fifteen minutes, and then got really bored. I went into her bedroom, and sat down on the side of the bed. I then called my mom, and said, "Mommy, Grandma won't wake up! I want breakfast!" My mom was silent. Then she said, "OK, honey, is grandma moving at all?" I told her to wait while I went into her bedroom. I came back and said, "She's snoring REALLY loud! When will she wake up!?" I heard a sigh from the phone and my mom said, just wait for grandma to wake up, but if you get really hungry, just shake her arm or something until she wakes up." When she finally did wake up, I was starving! She made me one of the BEST breakfast I will ever have; grilled cheese with ham. The best thing about it was, I will never get one like that again; perfectly cooked, without being burnt at all! (My mom'll burn anything!) Frances Cutler was a huge part in this entire family, and to friends too, but we have to live as if she were still here. ~Rachel “ Aunt Fran was a wonderful aunt. She always made me smile and laugh. When I was a teenager and was having problems at home, I called Fran and she immediately came to get me so I could live with her. She was so incredibly supportive. When I was older, she always kept in touch, sending me wonderful letters at Christmastime. My biggest regret is that I didn't have a chance to see her before she left us. She will always remain in my heart. Maryanne
