“ We are sending to the family warm, loving prayers. Frankie was and is a beloved soul. He truly was a gentleman, a kind man to everyone. I served on the church board with him and his patience and concern for everyone never failed. May he have lasting peace and may all who knew him and love him still be comforted in Divine Spirit.

“ Frank I will truly miss our conversations in the lobby in the morning about travel and family, your wonderful disposition, and the stickers you gave us to brighten up our name tags! Every guest you came in contact with was enriched by your warmth. Donna and family I am so sorry for your and our loss. The lobby and our van will be a little more empty now. Sharon lanzito
