

Gail M. Powless

December 9, 1955 - June 6, 2007

Gail Powless, 51 of Nedrow, New York died Wednesday, June 6, 2007 at Community General Hospital in Syracuse, New York.

Surviving are her fiance; Allen Burk, sons; Michael A. George, II of Syracuse, New York and Richard (Ryan) George of LaFayette, New York; daughter; Renee (Richard) Bell of LaFayette, New York, brother; Donald (Cynthia) Powless, Jr. of Pulaski, New York, sister, Gwen (Charles, Jr.) Webster of Oswego, New York; ten grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her brother Nelson Powless in 1992.

Gail loved to play pool, practiced martial arts, and enjoyed crocheting. A fun-loving person, who would do anything for anybody, Gail raised miniature pinchers and loved being around and spending time with her grandchildren. There are not enough words to express the kind of person she was and how she will be remembered.

Services 2:00 pm Monday, June 11, 2007 at the Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, Inc., 4612 South Salina Street, Syracuse, New York. Burial: Longhouse Cemetery, Onondaga Nation. Calling hours 12:00-2:00 pm Monday, June 11, 2007 at the funeral home, 4612 South Salina Street.

Tribute Wall

“ I light this candle in memory of Aunt Gail. That picture reminds me exactly of the many times I saw her looking at me. I miss her more today because not only is it 2 weeks from the anniversary of her passing 2 years ago but yesterday morning, her brother Don died. They continue to be survived by their sister, Gwen, my mother. My heart hurts for her losses. This is a sad time for our family. I know Aunt Gail would know exactly what to say and do in this time if she were here. I miss you, Aunt Gail. You continue to be in my thoughts and heart. Don't worry, I am taking good care of Gwenster. I won't stop. Love Monica

“ I don't know this lady, I know some of the Powless family. I feel always sorry when a Native American dies. I'm a german girl living in the USA and proud to have Native American friends. So I decided to light a candle for the Powless family. They are very nice people.

“ I knew Gail as a neighbor to the Grealish family (next door). She was one of the kindest people I ever knew. I just talked with her last week and she planned to visit me. It's hard to believe she is gone. May she find relief from her physical problems amd find rest in God's loving hands.
