“ I have been away from Syracuse for many years, but I remember visits to Aunt Jenny's house to visit with cousins. I never saw this photo of her and I am surprised I forgot how pretty she was. I will remember her kind wishes for me when I had my daughter and wish all her children well. My deepest condolences for your loss.

“ We will truly miss the presence of Mel and Jen on our street. They have been our neighbors for over 30 years. There will never be a neighbor as kind, generous, and certainly not as neat! We will keep the family in our prayers as you deal with this loss.

“ My heart and prayers are with your family during this time. Your mom was a wonderful woman and the greatest neighbor that anyone could have. From Cookies and soda, yelling at your dad for cheating me in cards, or telling us Brutus would bite if we hopped her fence. Your mom and dad were amazing people and like surrogate grandparents to my sisters and I. Know that they are now in peace.-Lauren Davis
