“ Mary and Dianne,

I was saddened to hear yesterday of your dad's passing. Such fond memories of your Mom, Dad and Rosie--especially when Mom and I would stop over to chat and sometimes watch "Jeopardy" with Rosie, who was astoundingly accurate and put us both to shame! We send our prayers at this very sad time, but remember all the warmth, laughter and daily exchanges with George, Helen and Rosie, nearly every time we stepped outside our home across the street on Midland Ave.

Love,

Sandy Bigtree and family

“ We were sorry to hear of your loss. May the knowledge that your dad is at peace and with friends and family who have gone before comfort you. You will all be together in the future. Until that time, may remembrances of his love lift your spirits.

“ George was a sweet man. I love the picture with that little smile. I saw that each time I met him. He had quite a journey through life, ending up in Cortland where he was surrounded with love by Dianne and Mary and others who met and loved him and spent time with him here these last years. It was a good life and a good leaving... I am keeping him and his loved ones close to my heart as you honor him and say your farewells.
