“ George, Joyce, Dale & Caryn - It truly saddens us to learn of Young George since, in our memories, he will forever remain the beautiful, blonde headed little boy, playing in his yard next door to us & riding his bike up & down the road. We will continue to pray that a merciful God now cradles George gently in the palm of His hand, as he blesses each of you with the strength and comfort you need during this tragic time.

“ I have many many memories of George, Growing up as kids right into our high school years. It's not until something happens that makes us take a step back and wonder where did all those years go. George will always be in my thoughts because he is in my memories.

“ Joyce, I remember you as the little girl who lived behind us in Southwood. I remember too, when your son was born, as he is exactly the same age as my first born. I too, recently lost a son and I know how terrible the pain is when we lose a child. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this most trying of times. Remember that God is with you and has promised that "Lo I am with you always even unto the ends of the earth. God Bless you, Joyce.
