“ Father in heaven, Even though my family's hearts are heavy with grief, I want to praise Your holy name. You are an awesome God. You spoke and the world was created. I give You all glory and honor for who You are. I worship You alone. I thank You that you know all their pain and sorrow. Your Word says "as a mother comforts her child, You comfort us." I ask that You be their comfort today. Help them to sense Your presence and Your peace. Help them to reach out and comfort others as You Father, have comforted us. In Jesus name, amen.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this very difficult time. Every event I can remember being at with Glenda we always had alot of laughter and I will cherish that always. From her crocheting pink sweater sets for my daughters and making their baptism dresses. To her telling me about cramps in her toes while we worked in the cold (and describe it using her hands). You will be truly missed. I am sure you will get a good seat at the bindo game above. Rest in peace.
