Harold D. Lyons March 26, 1947 - February 1, 2012 Hairs Harold David Lyons, 64, of the Onondaga Nation, returned to the creator Wednesday at Upstate University Hospital. Employed at Conrail for 15 years and maintenance supervisor at Upstate University Hospital for 25 years. “ Char,as we talked last week, I felt it wasn't going to be long. He suffered more than his share. Hairs and I were great friends through high school. We had so many laughs but he was always so respectfull of all. He will be missed as we spoke of him being at our 45th reunion this fall. So many kind and happy thoughts of hi-school with him. He is at peace with your daughter, and brothers now. May you find some kind of peace real soon. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Jean

“ Very sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved one Harold. Life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. We are comforted by the hope of the resurrection. God holds out this wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said " I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE."

Mark 5:38-43 is one of the nine accounts of ones who were resurrected. How comforting to know these thing from the Holy Scriptures. What a blessed reason to hope in God! (John 5:28,29)

The gift of memories of Harold will bring you great joy and turn into a treasure.

You and yours will receive strength though prayer to God, you will feel comfort by the loving concern of your God-fearing friends, and you will be uplifted by studying God's Word.

Trust in "the God of All Comfort" (Psalms 83-18)

“ Vern and the rest of the family. Sorry to hear about your brother. What a guy I can still see him smiling and always laughing. The strangest thing that I was going by Upstate on Friday wondering how he was doing, then I saw it in the paper. my prayers are with you.

“ Hi "Partner"...will never forget the summer we were partners in the horseshoe league and we came in third. After that, you always called me "partner". I know that Trina and your brothers were there to greet you when you entered the Spirit World and now you can watch over your mom and Char. I know you are in a beautiful place and you are finally at peace. RIP, "Partner"
