“ To the family of Mr. Mevec, My sympathies for your loss of your husband and father. I knew him as my coach in the Valley Girls softball league where he coached along with Tom Auffhammer. What a great man! With his calm presence and humor, he managed to kept a team of teenage girls interested in learning the game and playing their best. Many years later, I would see him at the Geddes ball fields cheering on his own grandchildren. How proud he was of his family! May your joyous memories carry you through this most difficult of times.
