“ Sherrie, Sandy & family- We are so very sorry for the loss of Potsy. We loved her and considered her part of our Irish family. She was so energetic and happy all the time, even when she wasn't feeling so good. She was definitely one of a kind, few could match up to her caring, loving spirit. After we lost Aunt Maisie, we all felt like she took on a new role to help us fill the gap and we truly loved Potsy for that. She filled a void we hadn't figured out how to fill. Every time we talked, she was always so bubbly, full of chipper, bright and cheerful. It was a pure delight to chat to her and update her on everything going on in our lives and we know she loved hearing all the news. Know that she was loved and adored. She will be missed. Potsy is with your dad now, with Aunt Maisie, Paddy, Lois and Dutch. I've no doubt there is one great reunion party being held for her. They are all together again catching up. Love from Denise O'Reilly, Washington DC & Tipperary, Ireland.
