“January 23, 2007 - You will be sorely missed Grandma. You have been a part of my life for so very long, and I consider myself very lucky. You helped me with the details of getting my wedding dress and were there to make Christmas decorations with when I was young. Today would have been your birthday. We celebrate on your behalf. Thanks for being such a great Grandma!

“Mama, There is no way anyone will or ever could replace you. Everything I am or have accomplished relates back to you. My nursing was because you said how important an education was for life. You taught me to sew, to crochet, to embroider, to craft with minimal supplies and to cook on a shoestring. My love of books and reading you instilled in me because you said it would open the world to me. You also taught me to value people and you loved all your children even when we did things that drove you up the wall. Thank You Mom. I do not question your leaving at this time though you will be missed terribly. I look forward to heaven and trust you will be there in the "house of the Lord forever." 1 Corinthians 15:51,52 We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall all be changed.

“Grandma God has taken you to a better place...although it really is not too far from us...Because we still have all the memories of those special times we have shared in the past...Those thoughts will keep us close to you, until at last...It will be our time to join you once again. You will surely be missed. Until we are together again Love Kelly & David

“ Friends are the family we choose""....I had the opportunity of knowing Helen through my mom,who grew up with Helen's family.They shared many happy times! When my mom passed away, Helen was like a grandmother to my two girls. She always remembered their birthdays and we enjoyed visiting with her and John. Our thoughts and prayers are with her and her family. We will miss her! Colleen

“ THE BATTLE SHE FOUGHT You fought and won the battle too many times. But this one he said unto you "shall be mine" You agreed and did as he said. When you took your last breath and went ahead. A lot of tears will be flowing but there will be tears of rejoicing. No word could describe how a mom & grandma you were. Now that you are free of pain and were sent above. The Lord knows exactly what he was doing, but he promised unto you, he will see your family through. Helen Marie Lefever was your name - a strong old woman you shall remain. Memories we shall keep. Regrets we shall release. We will live on with you in our hearts. GOODBYE for now Grandma as we part.
