“ As blessed as I am to consider so much of Henry's family as my own family's lifelong best friends, I can only imagine how proud and blessed he felt during his illness and even in death. Loving is wonderful, but being loved is awesome and a tribute to ones life, he is truly blessed to have your family as his. Every celebratory event I have attended where he was present (even when sick and weak), he was smiling and very proud of his family. I hope you all find comfort in each others love and in the knowledge that you are a blessing. Love, Cayse

“ We love you Uncle Hank, always and forever, it breaks our hearts to loose you. You were always there for us in our darkest time when we lost our son, I'll always remember us looking up at the stars and you told me that he is there at peace with my Dad. We have lots of good memories of your visits, we love you so much. You will be the shinning star now with my Dad, Uncle Jerry, Uncle Roger and Aunt Eve, what a party you will have.
I miss you terribly already, love you. To my cousins I can say that he loved you all so very much, wish I could take the pain away for all of you.

“ To the Berube Clan, Words can not express how my heart feels for you. Words can not heal the pain you are feeling. But words are all I have. Please know that you are all in my thoughts.

“ To: The Berube Family,

Our deepest sympathy and condolences to your family. Your Father was a loving and caring man who took pride in providing for his family. He was my father's friend for many years. know that he is in a better place and walking hand in hand with other loved ones long passed. He is watching over all of you and smiling at each one of your accomplishments in life. Celebrate his life.

With deepest sympathy and respect,

Mark and Kathleen
