“ It was my pleasure to be able to service Mr. Hoadley's lawn the past 7 years. he was always very pleasant to talk to. I would never have guessed he was 92. He looked more like a man of 72. he was one of my favorite customers. He will be missed.

“ Susan and family We're very sorry for your loss of your dear father. He was a great neighbor and fellow veteran. Irv was always a pleasure to converse with, so upbeat and positive. We went out to lunch last Veterans Day and had a great time hearing about his US Coast Guard days. Also your Dad was the source of our first son's first sentence. He saw Irv's red roofing truck pull into his driveway and exclaimed "Big truck, red Hoadley truck!". Jack and Pym Mumford at 211 Oakley

“ Susan, We are so sad about the death of your dad. Irv was such a great guy! We were so lucky to have him as our neighbor. We had some great chats across the creek with each other. You dad had such a positive outlook on life and never said a bad word about anyone. Please accept our sincere condolences and let your family and Arlene know how sorry we are. You now have one more Angel along with your mom and brother looking after you!! Sincerely, Mary and Gary

“ I don't know if you will remember me, but my parents and your parents were good friends for many years. hodge was my maiden name and your brother bobby and I grew up together. There is a picture of the two of us on a swing somewhere. I wanted to offer my condolences. Many years ago I would see your father getting roofing supplies at the garage he had on Wiman ave. your father and mother were always very nice to me. your father and brother were goodmen.
