“ Dear Family, Jack was my Mom's best friend in the three years she was at the Crossings. She very much enjoyed his company and talked of him all the time. Jack's friendship with her made life for us easier during those hard years . We enjoyed his company also when we visited. We never knew Jack before the Crossings years but I know he must have been quite a guy ! Our prayers go out to him. May god bless. Jim Nels and family
