“ To all the Sutton Family,

Many, many years ago Mr. Sutton stepped in when a group of small boys, including me, were without a baseball coach. I am sure he had many other things that he would have rather have done but we got to play because of him that summer. Thank you, Mr. Sutton, you showed us what it is to give of yourself as I am sure you did many times in your life. I'll try to pass it on.

“ To: The Sutton Family

Thinking of you all this week. Jack Sutton had a big influence on my life and many others, he was such a good man and we will all miss him. The stories and goodtimes are so numerous between the Sutton's and Marziale's it would take weeks to recount them all, but I am sure that is exactly what we will be doing in the months to come. God Bless you all.

Sincerely,

The Marziale Family

“ Dear Peg and family, We were sad to read about Jack's death but know he suffered greatly the last year so pray he is in a safe and kinder place. The SB family has grown so much with another generation beginning so it was difficult to find quiet time for us old timers to visit with each other as often as we would have liked but we do appreciate having such great neighbors that we have so much in common with. Jack's life was full of good deeds and his life will live on in his children and grandchildren. May God Bless you all at this trying time. Adam & Marge128
