“ Happy 76TH Birthday Mom

I love you and I miss you... hope you have a great day..

so much is happening getting ready for the holidays. wich actually neither andrea or me are really in the mood for. idk guess its cause of so many of you have passed it just doesn't seem the same. were trying to get everything in order so we can put house up for sale etc prob in march or april and hopefully move when kids are out of school. just not exactly sure where were going to go prob palm coast fl area is most likely but if we could think we both rather go to another state. I have a really strong feeling I have to travel to make good money and to build up the pension for retirement. just don't want travel to mess up my marriage. that means a lot more to me than anything else.

it gets so hard writing to you sometimes cause it keeps bringing back the pain of losing you all over again, might sound silly cause I know your always with me...all of you are you are all a part of me.ok mom I need to go for now. please have a good day.

I love you and miss you...

“ Hi mom

well today marks 8 years since we lost you... not a day goes by I don't think of you or dad or any of the family that has passed and been taken away from us. I can only hope that there is truly no more pain and suffering in heaven and with the belief I have I know it is truly paradise. I am getting ready to go to work. the job sucks and is pretty unorganized which I don't like but ooh well. sorry I haven't been on here much lately its just really hard sometimes was traveling for work as well as working a lot. but as you know I do pray every night for you all as well as all of us still here.

it will be hard working today especially around 1040 this am when I was talking to dr DeSimone when his pager went off and learned you had passed on. I wish there was more I could have done I fired your dr shick he was a fucking quack he was the cause of you being in hospital in first place.

ok enough on that.

I'm going to be traveling later this weekend back to mass going to work up there if we can want to make a lot of money and get stuff paid off so we can sell the house by next summer n move.

ill fill you in on more details as I can.

know I love you all and I miss you all very much.

talk to you soon

its so hard some days here with out you. not being able to talk to you or hear your voice.....

I have been putting this off all day it gets so hard to put down what I am feeling especially on your b day, holidays the anniversary of your passing..... just makes me think of the trips to Syracuse. all the struggles and pain you went through..... even more thinking about the time we lost over the 19 years you were in ny... we would get to see you for a matter of weeks if that once a year.....so much has happened recently.... Christian said joy was in hospital last sat he said she had blood clots on her lung or lungs guess she was in there till about wed afternoon. he said she had to be on bed rest for a few days prob a week or so. not sure what caused it? and then last sun kevin had a heart attack. Phyllis said he didn't feel good and took a couple asprin guess that saved him she said he had 100 % blockage. they put a stint in she said he came home on tues or wed as well.

oh well hopefully everyone will recover totally.

I'm not exactly sure about heaven and what happens after death buti do believe that there is life after death and I do believe there is a heaven. and yes GOD has it all set up so we all live in peace and without pain. just wish I could know more guess that would take all of the what ifs and I wonders out of everything? I just hope that all of our family that has passed is all happy and back together again.... wish there was a way to set it up so we could all talk and stuff? I believe that you are all watching over us maybe not 100 % of the time kinda like there is a buzzer that goes off if were messing up or in trouble? guess it would be hard to watch us all and be living in peace??

I don't know I'm just rambling on and not making much sence I guess?

had a venous stacis ulcer on my left foot again the first one I had healed pretty good in a matter of weeks but the 2nd one sucked. it looked really bad and had me worried..

I was at the point of getting rid of the bike. then it started to heal.

its coming along slowly but loos a lot better. please pray for me that it recovers fully

I don't really care about getting rid of the bike and I have been seriously thinking about it.

a lot of people have been in wrecks and getting killed. I have way to much to lose now..

I know my abilities and all that its just you cant go out and be secluded from all the idiots on the road all the time. they definantly aren't paying attention that's for sure.

had a red wolf run in front of us last weekend 5 min from the house.

I don't know mom.....I just miss you all so much and I love you.....

hope you have a great birthday.....

oh ya before I forget craig and kyla are having a baby. and ya they got married a little while back..

oh well I'm just babbling about nothing.. ill come back on an talk again soon..

I love you mom and I miss you

well today makes 7 years since we lost you. not a day goes by I don't think about you or miss you.

I still find myself wanting to pick up the phone to call you and just hear your voice again, there were so many things that went wrong when we lost you, most of it due to an asshole you had for a dr. tammy concelli and dr DeSimone were great but dr shick is a complete fuck up he doesn't deserve the right to practice medicine. I know I am supposed to just let it go and death is a part of life and it is just the next step of phase but it just isn't fair. I can try to justify it by saying GOD needed you more than me for something special and maybe he did but I don't know. I just cant get over the helpless feeling I had running back and forth from nc to ny trying to get answers. I'm sure I wont ever know all the details as to why he took the course of action he did in your care but all I know is it was him that put you in that situation and it never should have been like that. oh well enough ranting about all that it doesn't change the fact that your not here. your missing out on so much from physically being here but I know you are always with me and watching out for me andrea christian josh and taylor. I just wish you could have met them and see how great they are . I don't know what to say its just really hard some days to piece everything together . I keep looking back at everything that happened the last couple months with you in the hospital nad keep trying to figure out if there was more I could have done or if there was something the drs were missing to help get you better? at the end you were just so weak from everything that was going on with the back to back major surgeries in less than 24 hours I guess that just took its toll I don't know? but I cant help but think if your primary was more on the ball he would have caught this and you wouldn't have been in that position to begin with..... oh well I hope everything is as nice in heaven as we all pray it is. no more pain and suffering.... all the happiness you can handle.... lol I don't know maybe its all just a way to keep everyone calm till they take there last breath? that's what a lot would like to believe but I know what I believe and I believe that yes there is a heaven and yes one day we will all be together in GODS kingdom.... and until then I have a lot of angels watching out for me an d my family and I just miss you all so much..... I love you..... talk soon mom, meme, aunt ellie and all the rest.

hope you are all at peace and having a good time.....

I'm sorry I haven't been on here more. I know I was but lost the link to your page and the stuff from the holidays last year is missing.

oh well we bought a house and closed in jan 2016. its nice in a nice area. a lot closer to work.

I'm working on the avatar project and were getting a raise next month. plus I'm supposed to be getting promoted to electrical foreman. so that will be more money.

some days its easy to just come out here and fill you all in on whats going on. other times it is so hard and painful. makes me realize how much I miss you all and how hard it is to go on without the ones we love here to share in all of our ups and downs. I know you are always with me your a part of me. that will never change.

I just don't like the not knowing ya know. everyone says its the end of all your pain and suffering and you can be lifted up in GODS heaven. and live in pure true happiness and that one day we will all be reunited.

all I know is my faith in GOD will never stop. I believe that death is just another part of life. ya maybe not in our earthly shell but our spirit will live on in GODS kingdom. and we will all be together again one day.

I know the power of GOD will and has defeated anything and everything and my faith lies in him.

I don't have all the answers but I do know I have never felt a love like I do with andrea.

she was definantly sent to me by GOD it wasn't just by chance or anything else it was predestined by GOD to bring us together.

I cant thank him enough for that.

I love you all mom and I miss you all so much.

please be sure to tell all of our family I said hi and I love them and miss them.

and please tell tim he would have been proud of Jessica.

andrea and I went to her wedding to adam a couple weeks ago.

tim I know you are watching over her but she has grown into a great young woman. and adam is a great guy you would love him I wish things could have been different I don't think anyone will ever really know what was going on that day when you left us. I'm not sure why I am the only one from our side of the family that gets invited to anything with tracy or jess?

still haven't figured that out yet and prob never will. its almost like I'm the closest thing they have to you?

I don't know. all I know is tracy married kevin he is a great guy I don't think you could have picked anyone better for her to be with. other than you of course.

they had a pic of you with jess as a remembrance. rest assured your daughter Jessica has not forgotten you neither has tracy. I know they love you as much today as they did every day you were all together. oh well enough about all that. I need to get to bed were working 5 10 hour days and 8 on sat.

I need to go to bed.

I love you all and I miss you all very much,

ill talk to you soon

love

just wanted to touch base with you. Andrea and I got married june 28th. christian was there he had fun. had a good turn out tried keeping it small and simple.

had a close call at work a 200 foot crane fell over about a min or so after I just walked through the area. I saw it starting to go over and yelled and luckily some workers heard me they scattered. as fast as I know no one was hurt it could have been a lot worse no one was injured either that im aware of. im sure osha will be there in the am and we will have a safety meeting as well. it did mess up some equipment a transformer was pushed down to the axel in the ground and other things were hit not sure the extent of the damage.

been working on the avatar project at Disney with ermco electric. there a union contractor pay isn't that great but there paying medical for andrea me josh, taylor and Christian. plus I get pension etc.

and for bigger news andrea and I are buying a house. were moving to auburndale fl its between Orlando and Lakeland, really nice area. it 4 bedroom and 2 bath a little over 1800 sq feet. there building it from scratch, and the best part the mortgage with taxes ins etc included will be 100 or less per month more than we have been paying for rent. plus no tolls and 25 min to work. that beats an hour plus each way and 60 a week in tolls.

we will be doing your dedication either tomorrow but prob fri or sat for the 6 th year anniversary of your passing. it sucks so bad your not here for all this that is going on. I miss you all so much.... some days it is so hard to function all I can think about is what we all had and what more we could have all seen together. ill be praying to you all and for you all. I hope heaven is as nice as I have heard it supposed to be,

I need to get a reg dr and get everything checked out soon. seeing im in my 50's now gotta keep up with all the stuff..... I know your all watching the family we had a big 4th of july party aunt chris looked at me and we thought the same thing when they took a pic of all of your brothers and sisters and we could all see what we truly were missing with you all not being there. chris lost it and so did I guess were closer than that huh? we both think a lot alike..... craig and his gf were there plus nick and carrie with her bf chad made it but his wife didn't and his daughter..... it was great seeing everyone. lisa was there she looked good plus marie and Corrine and kip were there. haven't seen then in 25 years..... well marie I have but not kip n Corrine. kip said we need to do this every year.... I think he has a point.... lol ok I gotta get going.

I love you mom ,dad meme, pepe and everyone else... the list is getting too long we need to slow that down.....

ok ill talk to you sook

I LOVE YOU ALL AND MISS YOU WITH ALL MY

well today it makes 5 years since we lost you. I did a dedication with andrea here in Titusville at the park. hope you don't mind us doing it here instead of under the bridge. we will do it there if were in the qarea just don't feel like driving 40 plus miles each way seeing everything there has changed. the dosk isn't even the dock anymore none of the crew that was there when you and eddie hung out there are around there I have no idea if there still alive around or if so where they are. also the bridge is just that sinbads has changed names a couple times and the food there really sucks now. I miss you so much.....

im getting better I got cleared from my orthopedic surgeon to go back to work so now I have to go to see pulmonary on oct 6th. ribs are better at times ill lay on them just right or do something and they will hurt not sure if im hurting them worse by do that or not? one day little to no pain at all unless I bend way over and try doing something ill get a slight pain down low on the rib cage like its healing great then that night lay down on side and its fine then onto stomach and hurts so I don't know. also Aflac is supposed to be paying on the hospital and accident policies I had with them . I got a letter saying I had to oct 13 to pay seeing I wastn working. funny thing I cancelled all 3 I had with them 1 I did over the phone that would have paid me 3k a month while I was out of work. the other 2 I guess are active according to them I don't know how I got paid back for all the money they took out? guess I ll wait and see. if they pay off as near as I can tell it will be close to 3k between the 2 policies. ill let you know what happens.

im trying to keep aas busy as I can today did the rugs gotta do bathrooms and dust and vac then prob do lawn. ill do garage either tomorrow or next week. still waiting on a couple parts for the bike then ill be getting that back. im not sure what im going to do with that yet. I love to ride but it all depends on how I feel. I know deep down ill want to ride but at the same time I want to get another truck I think something newer doesn't have to be brand new but something with 4 doors and better on gas and something we can put the bike on and take to the keys or whatever?

like I said that all depends if I decide not to keep the bike and pay it off and sell it ill get another car so I can go to work and save gas money etc maybe a convertible? only prob is with the weather and I don\'t want expence of replacing a top or anything?

ya im avoiding it just rambling

I love you mom and I miss you so much. I miss dad meme and pepe all of you.

just lost betsy olson the other day she was 69. tell her I said hi. haven\'t seen her in years since the bridge café days when she would stop in to see her brothers goerge and david . im trying to stay busy as I can so this day goes by but I know at 1040 ill be looking at the clock when I was talking to dr desimone when his pager went off that you coded and we lost you. im still kicking myself in the ass for joy asking you about being buried in ny or mass I would have brought you home to mass you were born and raised there Syracuse was only your place of residence for 19 years you spent a lot more than that in mass plus your friends could have come and said goodbye and it would have been better to pay our respects more often vi know Claire and Phyllis etc and the rest would be going to the cemetery a lot more and truth be known I doubt anyone goes to onidaga cemetery just saying. I know you wanted to be there with eddie maybe that\'s just me being selfish wanting it to be in mass and ya I took a lot of grief from your brothers and sisters. but its what you wanted and its not my place to change that.

I love you and I miss you so much.

tell everyone I said hi.

ill keep you informed what happens on the 6th

love you mom

just wanted to say hi. not sure if you remember pooh bear? he used to come down to the bridge café all the time. just found out he passed away earlier today. it sucks he was a good guy. he had stomach cancer and from what billy cowan told me they removed his stomach last year so he has been battling for sure. hope he is at peace now with no more suffering. wanted to give you an update. my shoulder/ collar bone seems to be getting stronger. started using 2 lb weights wed. then found out thurs that my ribs aren't healing they said the c.t. is almost the as it was in july. also there is a syst on my liver I think? july it was 8cm now it is 7.2 cm so its getting smaller. im going to ask thm tues am when I go there to get my medical records and my copy of my bill. I want to see if it was caused from the accident. oh well I have to go to pulmonary tues get that then back to p.t. to meet with the dr there to see how we are going to handle p.t. of they can give me things to do at home and save my p.t. for when I can do more? also have to get med records from dr hanna, merritt island urgenst care and then labcore and royal oak medical then I can send it all in a hopefully I will get my paperwork from Quinco then maybe I can get paid back for lost wages, ad all my out of pocket money. and before I forget allstate has decided there going to pay to get my bike fixed so there supposed to send a check down to champions and ill have to go there and sign in then they can order everything and fix it. im not sure if ill be able to ride anymore? if I can it wont be fore a while the way it looks.

hope we get a big settlement on all this. hoping I can get enough so I can pay off the bike an car loan and all of our credit card bills and pay back Phyllis , pat n Charlie etc and enough to buy a house and pay cash. if get lucky enough I would love t have 150k in the bank after all that and if im getting disability and they figure I cant go back to doing electrical If I can get 3500-4k a month with that in the bank I will retire. I guess time will tell. just hope I van get this settled soon. I was looking for andrea the kids and me to get a house in sc. it would make her mom happy plus its close to good places list savanna, Jekyll island . andreas mom lives in Hilton head island but *were thinking bluffton sc its closer to the highway and it put me about 4 hours from Christian so I d see him a alot more.

ok its getting late I need to do desert before we put the kids to bed.
I love you all and tell everyone I said hi. ill keep you informed to whats going on with the lawsuite.
talk soon mom
I love you :)

“ hi mom

sorry I haven't been on here more often. ive been banged up. went to north Carolina for 4th of july holiday to see Christian. I got there on the bike no problem picked up christian we went and had lunch then were heading back to the hotel and some punk asshole cut in front of me and we got hit. I pulled Christian to my right to protect him from everything I could I got a concussion got knocked out after we made contact with the car ended up breaking my left collar bone had surgery on that last fri. also broke all the ribs on my left side except 2 . I got a lawyer and I want to sue his ass off. im hoping that we can get enough to pay off all the bills both my credit cards and andreas and the car loan and the bike if they don't total it they came back with a price of 3800 I got a ck for 2800 approx. with the 1000 deductible taken out. but that's from state farm allstate is the other drivers carrier they should have to pay for all of that and they cant know everything till they take it all apart that was just from looking at what was right in front of there faces.hope fully by the time they get the bike out of storage as of now its over 750.00 plus I cashed in 43.25 hours pto they will have to pay me back for and all time missed from work figure 12 weeks that's almost 25,000 plusover 2k in pto time plus mileage and expences and I just checked I paid 560 for surgery and put it on cc so it changed my score and that dropped by 33 points. so with all that should be like 30 k to me plus an outright pain and suffering suite I want at least 250k in pocket and this is a perminant injury I have numbness in my left shoulder n arm and this will never come back but I had to do the surgery because the bone broke clean but was no where near the other bone and wouldn't reconnect without surgery so I want peminant disability from allstate. they need to base it off my current wage hope I can get like 500 - 1000 per month on this plus 250k in pocket for pain n suffering and 30 k for payback of everything else and kinda hope they total the bike then ill get a black one. oh well ill keep you up to day so till then im out of work for 8 - 12 more weeks. I love you mom and I miss you all so much. tell uncle rollie thanks for bugging me about the goldwings im sure it was that and all of your help as well as GOD that it wasn't worse than this.

ill talk to you soon

I LOVE YOU

“Hi Mom Happy New Year. sorry its late. just wanted to say hi. its dads anniversary of his passing. its been 26 years. I miss you so much dad. I miss the little things like when we used to go fishing with uncle denny on sun am then go out for bfast. its things like that I miss along with ice fishing hunting. this weekend has sucked so bad we worked 18 hours sat n sun . andrea went to her friends she is a coworker she used to work with they had a few drinks grilled out and watched a movie so that's good. I watched the pats beat the colts and the rock. didn't sleep for shit think I got maybe 2 hours. I guess im just used to being in bed with andrea I cant sleep when she isn't there. even at phyllises and in nc the only way I could was sleeping pills and a couple beers at times or just being completely exhausted.. oh well I don't know what to say I want for us to buy a house this year and really strive toward our goals together. I cant imagine my life without her. I cant wait till she does her taxes hope she gets a good refund so she can file for divorce and get that out of the way then we can move forward with us and our future together . I want to marry her and we have looked at rings a few times. just hope she wants to. its hard cause she hasn't been wearing the ones we got together or the past pres and future ring. I know she cant wear rings or anything when she is at work but she went to her friends 2 times and both times she wore different rings not even the bracelet I bought her. it kinda hurts ya know. I mean I know she has other jewelry but I cant help but think if we get married will she not want to wear the engagement ring and wedding band? maybe im just being silly I don't know . like I said this weekend sucked for me. I didn't want to tell her about it cause I didn't want to spoil her time with her friend. I guess I didn't want to seem selfish or something? I think seeing its a new year when I do moms dedication in sept I might add another dedication and do the flowers but do it for the whole family. I miss you all so much. just need to pray about it and see when I should do it? well im starting to get upset thinking about you all. I wish I could talk to you n say hi and tell you all the silly things we took for granted and never got to say. its so hard when you lose people you love and are so close to you wish you had 5 more min just to tell them what they mean to you. ok I goota go. I love you all and I miss you so much talk to you soon love Jamie

“Merry Christmas Mom just wanted to stop by and wish you and dad and everyone else from our family and friends a merry christmas and a happy new year. andrea and I took a bike ride last night we went to visit tracy kevin and Jessica in st Augustine. we got to meet adam jessicas future hubby. tim you would like him he seems to be a great guy and is studying to be a cop. jess has grown into a great young woman tim you would be so proud of her. its so hard to keep in contact regularly with the family seeing were all over the place. but we need to do better that's for sure. we haven't done a family reunion other than 4th of july at phyllises since we lost meme and pepe. and I don't think I was able to get to any of them. andrea and I were talking about having a party next christmas eve. im hoping we can get into a house by the end of next year rather be paying for something that's yours instead of paying 1000 a month for rent to pay the mortgage for someone else specially these people they have a few houses in Titusville they bought and have never seen but are renting out and making money. im hoping this job continues for at least another year and then a lot more work comes up tat is federal..... I know im ranting on about work etc. sorry. just miss you all so much during this time of year. darcy had her baby yesterday. so that was good. oh well I need to see if andrea is getting up I want to start some bacon and stuff for bfast.. we didn't eat much of anything yest. as for the bike ride it was nice visit but we froze our ass off it was like 41 when we left st aug. very breezy and cold.... oh well I gotta go its almost 10 am and I want to eat.... lol I love you all and I miss you all very much ill stop by and say hi for new years. im hoping 2014 brings health and maybe a new house in the future..... lol talk to you soon love you all Jamie xoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxox “ Happy Thanksgiving mom. tell everyone I said hi and that I love them and I miss them. you wont believe it Turners beat Greenfield for the 3rd year in a row 28-14 today. they had the best year in turners football history as far as I know they won western mass championship . they lost 3 games total all year I think they lost to easthampton or something? and im not sure of the other but they lost to Littleton in the playoffs. they ended up 9-3 for the year. it was cold here today like 39 this am got to a high of the upper 60\'s supposed to be a lot better tomorrow. as soon as andrea drops off the kids with chris were going on the bike I booked a room for fri and sat night in Sarasota cant wait.... were staying at the ramada its in a good location and they have a rest and a tiki bar there and the elks is right up the street. trying not to get emotional its so hard without you here . I wish I knew what was going on with everyone that passed. I pray all the time that everything is like we think it is no pain only happiness. its our faith and I walk on that daily. I know you all have no pain and everything is fine I believe that with all my heart. I guess its just hard to understand sometimes? our earthly mind wont let us fathom life after death it makes us think that its over? if that is true then how does it all start? to me its like the birth is the beginning and then the life we have here is a lot of testing and growing and after death is the reward for being nive to people and treating everyone the best we can why is it so hard to just get along? seems everyone wants to treat you like shit to make themselves feel better about themselves? ya there are people I don\'t care for I just don\'t deal with them. im not going to kiss anyones ass. its just not me. oh well come on 7 pm the kids r going to bed then and then ill call Chrisitan and then its pumpkin pie time..... cant wait till we can go tomorrow andrea and I need time together we have been working so much for the past month plus..... the money is great but damn I don\'t have time with her or the kids and I wont lose her and our relationship over a job. im so tired working our ass off everything is paid on time but we have no time together that\'s why were taking time this weekend. we did get to the keys for her b day it was fun thank goodness its 7 kids r out of control and going to bed..... ill message you soon mom. I love *you and again tell everyone I love them and I miss you all..... love

“Happy Birthday Mom. today you would have been 72. I love you and I miss you so much. I wish I could pick up the phone and talk to you and just hear your voice. Andrea and I went to key west last wed and we got back sunday. sat was her birthday she turned 40. the weather was pretty good we had a little rain on fri and sat and it was windy on wed night and thurs but we had a lot of fun. didn't want to come back would have loved to stay a few more days. came back to work mon this company is so messed up they don't tell you much try keeping you in the dark on everything that's going on and then they expect you to kiss there ass and work till they feel like letting you go home and if you try to leave early they suspend you or lay you off today we were told we have to work from 7 am till 10 pm sat and 7-7 on sunday. so my next day off is thanksgiving day. wtf. I guess they don't want us to have a life outside of quinco. I guess I cant complain the money is good and I just hope it keeps up for at least another year or so. the project supposed to end like july or oct 2015. would be nice to stay there till the end or close to it. oh well I guess im just filling you in on everything ? im hoping the weather cooperates with us and we can take the bike to Sarasota fri after thanksgiving we want to go there n stay fri n sat night. would be a nice ride specially seeing we got a Goldwing now. I traded in the vtx 1800 we got a 2009 Goldwing. its a lot more comfortable and a lot of fun. I love riding with andrea its fun just to get away and relax . we usually go out for a little ride on tues if chris takes the kids then we get dinner and come back. other than that we go on the weekends when we don't have the kids if the weather is good. im trying to just fill you in on all the little stuff. Christians bday was fri he is 12 now. joy and her hubby scott had twins on halloween night. she is still being an ass only time I hear anything from her is if there is a problem with her getting her child support. all I can tell her is there taking it out of my check weekly I have no control over when the state of nc gives it to her. and oh ya I lose the first 950.00 of this years return the state of nc is taking it to pay the arrears on that. I guess the child support will drop a few $$ a week after that? I just wish she would do something to help Christian. she does nothing I truthfully don't think she does anything with him. I mean she didn't before now with twins she wont have the time.. I feel sorry for the twins if she is like that with them like she is with Christian. oh well I cant do anything from here about it and they want 2500 to 4000 retainer in order to even start anything. its such bullshit but that\'s the state for you. oh well mom I don\'t know what else to say it hurts so much some days I go to pick up the phone and I cant call you like I used to all I can do is come here and type what im feeling or talk to you in my prayers. I know your always with me mom but some days it just hurts not to have you here. ok its getting hard to type im going to say goodnight. I love you and I miss you

“ Hi Mom its fri 10/20/2013. it will be 4 years since we lost you on the 25th of sept. andrea and I did the dedication earlier today. we went under the dunlawton bridge. of course sinbads is long gone its our place down under. the food used to be good but now the name fits the food should be down under.. under the trash pile last time we went there it totally sucked. so we don't go there anymore. webbers used to be good took andrea there it sucked. wanted to take her to black beards but damn they have all gone to shit. we ended up at another rest in mims wasn't that good and over priced. we wont be going back there. we went to the dock like usual for a beer. they changed the name to wide open saloon. the changed the bar the back door is just the bar all the stool are in front they took out like half of the seating. so I think today was the last time we will be going there. I think from now on we will do a dedication either under the bridge like normal then just go to dinner n have a beer for you. ya the carnations went right toward the dock. it was a hard day mom . I had a tooth pulled ended up getting a temp 3 tooth bridge the perminant one comes in in a couple weeks I have to go back the 9th and get it put in. they credited me 400 on the other one and added another 740.00 to it so I guess my bill is like 1700? oh well I go a year to pay the 740 off and 5 months left on the other 518.00 im hoping tonight is a good night. mom I have been praying so hard and so much. I love andrea with all my heart. I am praying I haven't lost her. I tried to hold her hand when we were riding and its like she doesn't want me to touch her in any way. I try to kiss her she turns her cheek. I don't know what to do. I know were going day by day but at times it feels like I have lost her and she is going through the motions until she leaves me? I don't know if its just me and she is just making me really think about how mad she is at me? I don't want to lose her mom it would kill me. I left her twice cause she asked me to I cant do it again. if I lose her mom I will end the pain I cant go through it again . I would rather not be living than to not be with her. I feel so empty right now. everything I do is falling apart. am I that much of an asshole? all I have ever done is love andrea and the kids with all I am. I treat her like we are married I treat josh and taylor like they were my own . they all mean so much to me I cant lose them again. I would die for any of them mom rather than see any of them in pain. I just cant take any more pain.. right now I feel so dead inside. I don't know what to do mom please help me..... I am hoping for a good night tonight and tomorrow with andrea I hope she sees just what she means to me . today meant so much to me having her there it made it bearable. I feel like such a fucking failure. I finally get a good paying job and along the way lose the woman I have always wanted. can I fuck things up anymore? I need to get off here gotta pull it together before I call Christian not sure ill get ahold of him seeing its Joy's b-day. not sure if there going out or whatever but she is 8 months pregnant with twins..... Phyllis said she figures Christian will be living with me within 6 months said she figures joy cant handle him now she defiantly wont be able to handle him once she has the twins..... oh well its her problem I told her ill take Christian any time. wow she would have to pay me child support..... lol ok mom I love you and I miss you so much..... ill write again on the 25th the actual anniversary of us losing you. I love you

“ Hi Mom im back. just wanted to say hi. I love you and I miss you so much. im going to the dentist in the am im getting that tooth pulled that I had the root canal done the one in front that they put posts in as well it was getting dark had that done like 25 years ago. im kinda nervous about it there putting in a flapper they call it? it supposed to clip on to the teeth on the sides of it? it cost 400.00 I hope it doesn't look stupid..... oh well Andrea and I are going to Port Orange tomorrow we are doing your dedication a little early seeing the 25th is during the week. the weather supposed to be pretty good for the next couple days think its like 30% chance of rain. hope we can ride the bike. but that's up to andrea I get to ride every day if she wants to take the truck we will doesn't matter to me . I really do have fun riding with her. I love her so much mom I wish you could have met her. ill try to get back on here either fri or sat but I will definantly be on here and post on the 25th. if you can mom have everyone pray for me I love andrea with all my heart and I don't want to lose her. I want to spend the rest of my life with her. were taking things day by day right now. I want to just take her in my arms and never let go. but lately most of the time she either pulls away or if I kiss her she will turn and I might get a cheek. I cant wait for the day to come when she doesn't pull away and we can be together again . I miss US so much I wish I could undo everything I did to push her to a corner and have her feel she couldn't breathe but I cant I just have to change everything in order to get back the woman of my dreams and the woman I love. it isn't a lot to ask to change I tried looking at it from her side and I really understand. I was such a jerk . I just love her so much I wanted to be a part of everything and also have her be a part of everything I did. I was just trying to share things we liked. well taylor is out of the shower and I have to go finish watching a movie with her. ill talk to you later mom please help me..... I want my baby back she is my angel and I feel it in my heart. I just don't know what to do I feel so lost right now..... ok I gotta run tell everyone said hi and I love them and I miss you all so much. talk to you soon. love Jamie

“ Hi Mom I just wanted to recap what I said last night. I don't think anyone comes to the site but me I told andrea she can come and read this anytime but im not sure if she will? I just don't want anyone thinking im rambling fool but I probably did in yest message. I love andrea with all my heart. I want to spend the rest of my life with her. I am hoping and praying that I can prove to her I can change and give her the breathing space she wants and needs to have a life outside of our relationship.i don't want to keep her under lock and key that was never what I was trying to do I was only trying to involve her in everything in my life. and in doing this she felt like she was backed in a corner . right now I just feel so shitty for doing that to her I guess I never looked at it from her side till now. I am just hoping and praying I haven't lost her . I want to take her out for her bday I want it to be something she never forgets I want it to be magical I am hoping she still wants to go to the keys if not ill take her where ever she wants. I am happy just being with her and when I am not with her I feel so empty not that we need to be up each others butt all the time but when I was asked twice to leave it hurt me so deep mom I cant handle anything like that again. andrea is the love of my life and the woman of my dreams and the one I want to spend the rest of my life with. I wish she could see and feel the love I have for her from my eyes and see why I do things the way I do then maybe she would understand better? if she does read this or yesterdays message. andrea I love you I want to be with you the rest of my life im sorry I had you feel you couldn't breathe and backed you in a corner. I don't want to lose you I want US and OUR FUTURE well mom andrea and I talked more last night she said she would go with me fri to do your dedication. that makes me feel a lot better . this year seems so much harder without you here I guess its cause last year andrea and I had a lot of stress about her house and us moving etc so I guess that was a big part of it and this year with me working and she is working part time we have stability. so now I have more time to think about everything. I know im running off at the mouth I need to eat and get ready for work I just hope mom that you forgive me for all the things we said to each other that hurt us I know deep down you have cause when you were in the hospital we were good. I just don't want you to ever think im a failure I want you to be proud of me and I guess the way things are with me and andrea you would see me as a failure so I guess I need to prove to andrea and you that I can change and be the man she was in love with. ok getting hard to see right now ill talk to you fri or sat. I love you and I miss you mom tell everyone I said hi love you Jamie

“Hi Mom I love you and I miss you. not sure where to start. well I found out joy is pregnant with twins she is due in oct. Christian told me. all I say is good luck with that. she cant handle christian and she will have 2 new borns... oh well. im not sure what is going on right now my life is so screwed up. I finally have a job that pays really good money and im working 6 days a week. bills are getting paid on time but other than that everything is spiraling down the drain. I love andrea with all my heart mom but we talked last night and were taking things day by day. she wants to have a life that doesn't include me in everything which I actually understand. I guess I had her in a corner like she couldn't do anything unless I was involved or whatever. I guess I was just jealous? seemed like the only time we had together was when things were going to happen. like she went to her moms with the kids I was lost I missed her so much. I know we each need a little space to be our own person I guess my problem was I tried to get her involved with everything I was doing. I just wanted to share everything with her and I didn't want her to feel left out or like she wasn't wanted im proud of her mom and I thank GOD every day for bringing her into my life. but right now I don't know anything I feel like a ship lost at sea with no port around. I am trying my best to give her space her brother is coming here to go to hhn at fist andrea and I were supposed to go with her friends kim and some of her friends then we figured we would go alone and then she talked to her brother about it and then it was going to be brother sister weekend and ya I got a little upset cause I went from going with andrea to her going with her brother and I wasn't invited. but after talking to andrea I said ok go with him seeing she said she doesn't get to see him much then I come home and she tells me he is coming with 2 friends so I assumed that meant we could all go then but I was told no it would be andrea her brother and his 2 friends for the weekend so im not going again. she told me last night that she didn't know if they were coming thurs or fri but she said she was going to davenport leaving here about noon to get a hotel room and last she knew they were not sure what was going on fri night but they were planning to go to universal all day then I guess andrea was going to meet them there for hhn? then back to the hotel and then hang out on sun till they head back to sc. so im waiting to find out when there actually coming and what the plans are? all I know is ill probably work sat and maybe sun ? depends. I don't have a problem with her doing this it just hurt my feelings cause I only met her brother once and that was for taylors b day and we were just starting to be together and no one liked the idea. I just love her so much and right now I don't know if I have a chance to get her back or if I have lost her? I was asked to leave twice so she could try with chris it hurt me very bad both times I told her this time was for good when I came back. mom I cant take it if I lose her again I don't know what I would do my life is so fucked up right now I want to go to her and hold her so tight and never let go I tell her all the time how much I love her and lately its like she isn't hearing me doesn't believe it or whatever . I tried townning it down and taking things slow but I cant hold back what I feel. right now I am praying with all my heart that if I can prove to her that I can let her live without me being up her butt with everything that maybe she will see im not trying to keep her under lock and key or anything like that. I love her with all my heart and I want to spend the rest of my life with her weather we ever got married or not.. but ya I would love for her to get the divorce after tax returns. she told me that if she had got that part time job the other day that she would have moved and left me cause of how she was feeling. I praise GOD after hearing that that her paperwork didn't get in there in time. I just hope that we can work on us every day and get our relationship back. I don't know if she is waiting to get another part time job offer and then leave or if she wants to stay and be roomates. who knows maybe she will talk to her brother when he comes here and get him to move back to florida and then they get a place . almost every way I look at how things are now I lose andrea and the kids the only thing I can do is prove to her that I can let her have her time for her n the kids alone and be able to go out with friends and not involve me? guess that's where I need to get involved with dart or pool league or maybe try softball league again? not sure how my ankle would handle it? I dint want to control her or anything like that I never wanted to. I guess after the bullshit with William . he was supposed to be a friend he was a fucking leach and looking at it now all he was trying to do is backdoor me to take her away from me. I really tried to be a friend to him mom nomatter what anyone thinks but he would call txt etc all the time and I was pushed away so ya I got jelous and I had every reason to I came home from nc he was here got in an argument andrea left with him ended up in a hotel from 215 am till she got home about 430 pm on sun I believe her when she said nothing happened but it hurt a lot then the asshole has the balls to tell her to either be with me or be friends or whatever with him ok gotta go for now ill finish after fri dedication were going to port orange im hoping andrea goes with me. talk soon mom I love you “Happy Mother's Day Mom. I LOVE YOU I miss you . doesn't seem like its going on 4 years already. I know time flies at times and this time has gone by kinda fast but the time it has been since I heard you voice seems like an eternity ago. I wish I could pick up the phone and talk to you so many times. just to say hi or whatever but the only way I can do that is though my prayers . I know you are always with me. I need your help with Christian mom joy is letting him control her so bad for example last week she actually cooked dinner for him 2 times it was cheeseburgers and fries the other was popcorn chicken and fries. other than that he had andys its a small shop they do burgers n fries and subs ... he is a regular there like norm from cheers he walks in they know him by name and has a table for him that he sits at like its reserved for him. they already know he wants a cheeseburger and fries and a coke. he had that twice and fri primos pizza at the mall im not sure about last night he had not eaten dinner yet when I called him . he is getting bigger and she does nothing to try to get him to eat better or anything..... mom please help talk to him I know he can feel your presence and stuff like I know you are watching over us as well. I don't want him to go through what joy and I did with surgery. at this rate he is going to have so many problems when he gets older if he lives to see it. I am working 6 days a week right now till further notice this is my first day off since last sat. on that note I got a Honda motorcycle last sat got a good deal on it and it will save gas money. ya I know I love to ride and so does Andrea. I cant wait to get her to bike week on it that will be fun but I really want to get to go to the Keys for her 40th birthday in Nov. I don't care what I have to do I will make that happen I want it to be the best b day she has every had..... Andrea myself and the kids are going to Daytona later this am I got you some flower I am going to say a prayer for you as well as meme and aunt ellie and all the rest of the family that has passed it doesn't matter if there moms or not I love them all and miss them and when I do the flowers it is in memory of all of you..... I love you all and miss you very much..... ill try to type more on here tonight when we get back..... hope you have a good day I love you all.....

“Merry Christmas mom, dad meme pepe and all the family. i love you all and i miss you so much. today is aunt chris's 61st birthday. right now im out of work and worried about getting the rent paid on time. i havent got unemployment started yet and havent even got the paperwork to know what i qualify for. i am so tired of working a project and bust your ass just to get laid off when its done then struggle to find another project to go on . i am hoping the cape opens up in the next couple weeks and the jobs are long term. they supposed to have some big contracts that will last a couple years or close to it. that would be great. im trying to not get emotional i know you all are with me all the time and know whats going on. i pray for you all daily. wish i could just pick up the phone some days just to hear your voices. i hope it is as nice in heaven as i have been reading. i cant imagine no more worries pain or anything just total and complete happiness. i know you all arent suffering anymore but it still doesnt fix the whole in my heart. i guess thats the selfishness we all have when the ones we love have gone on to heaven. maybe its cause we dont understand everything and we need to remember its cause GOD had plans for you all and that we need to know that passing on is just another step to life. well im rambling on and im trying to have patience with the work stuff but its hard. oh well i hope you all are doing fine. i love you all and i miss you..... talk to you again soon. new years is next week and it will be claires birthday. ill send you a note then.
love you all and miss you

“ hi mom. today sucked. had to work and the weather was dark and raining off and on. everyone said with time it gets easier but the way i see it the only way it gets easier is if you stay busy and dont remember. but i thank GOD for all the memories with you dad and meme and pepe and all of our family that has passed. all i can hope is in my faith in GOD that there is true happiness after death and that is just another part of the process. to live on earth and try to do the best you can and treat people with love and compassion and find the right person to spend the rest of your life with, and i know i have done that with Andrea i can't imagine my life with out her and the kids in it. the only thing i wish i had more control over is Christian. i am kept out of the loop from joy she tells me nothing the only time i hear anything from her is if child support isnt there on time. other than that i think she wished i were dead or at least out of chrisitans life for good.im waiting for the phone to ring one day and christian say dad i want to come and live with you in florida. but i dont think it willl happen he has her wrapped around her finger if he wines about anything she buys it just like she always has. i know i had a part in that too at first but i stopped. i miss not being able to see him more but financially i cant afford it. she refuses to meet half way so i have to go there to get him or stay there and that just lets her control more of what i do and that isnt right. she thinks she is hurting me well ya she is but it is also hurting chrisitian and i guess she doesnt see that ?i know i went on a tangent... lol all i know is with my faith i truly believe that life after death is truely without tears and pain etc. and we will all be together again. its just so hard sometimes. you try to find answers to why things happen like they do all i can figure is GOD has plans for all of us and he wanted to stop you from the pain and suffering you were going through and he called you home to let you rest and be in HIS paradise and be with the family and freinds of ours that has passed before us. Joys mom passed away a couple weeks ago i hope she is doing good. she always treated me nice. as did ab. Andrea had her b day last fri i took her to Kobe's the food rocked. we had plenty leftover so we had it sat :) the project i am on supposed to be ending in like 3-4 weeks im hoping there is more work to follow. if not it looks good for the cape to be opening up by 1st of the year i was told. just want more stability tired of working a project the look for more work it sucks. maybe ill hit power ball wed? 250 million ... got any hot numbers?????? well im running at the mouth sorry i didnt say much this am but it was hard tonight seems a little better i guess. know that i love you and miss you so much. i wish i could pick the phone up some days and just talk to you. i miss your voice i miss not being able to talk to you about things going on. all i can do is do it in my prayers.

ill talk to you soon mom i love you.....

“ Happy Mother's Day

I love you and i miss you.

just wanted to update you. aunt chris isnt doing good she had shingles in one eye she is blind in it now. she also had a problem with an infection i guess in her stomach. he kidneys nad liver were shutting down as of the other day they still didnt know why. her blood sugar was 500 and she had low blood pressure. last i heard the got them under control but still no idea why this is happening. also uncle brush isnt good phyllis said donny told her he just came home to die. he has copd really hard time breathing he had a tear in his aorta and had surgery on that and other problems. he told phyyllis he wished he was dead he has given up phyllis said he has gotten alot worse in the past 2 weeks. and it was a matter of days. i know the family is getting older and they will be getting called home to GOD but it still doesnt make it any easier. “ Hi Mom just wanted to say hi. its been a long hard week. Andrea and i are ok. Chris tried his head games and bull shit again. he had Andrea thinking about taking him back. he left renee on mom and asked andrea to meet him to pick up his stuff etc and he asked her to come home he uses her as his safety net thats all it is. well he is already back with renee. i told andrea it was a game he is playing like he always does. she told me last night she was glad i didnt leave or that she didnt ask me to cause i wasnt coming back if i left. i told her im not leaving her mom i love her with all my heart i want her as my wife. i told you fri the 13th was good luck i got my finalized div papers in the mail :) it was actually final on jan 5th. im happy thats done now i can move forward with andrea with that being taken care of. we have been working on a budget and she made a list of things she is going to list in her paperwork when she files for her divorce. yesterday was hard she went to get the kids and they got upset cause they saw chris's stuff in my truck she was bringing it back to him so he could bring it home to renees. the kids were upset cause they thought chris was coming home of course more of his fucking game im sure he said everything in front on the kids so they would help to get him home and when he took the stuff back the kids asked why and andrea had to tell them there daddy wasnt in love with there mommy but with renee and he was going back there to live. he is using his own kids like a fuckin pawn what is wrong with him? even if he came home and i left it would be the same shit it would last a week maybe 2 and he would leave and say he wasnt in love with andrea and has moved on. guess thats why couples have to completely seperate when they split? too much pain trying to save anything that was there from the marriage? maybe its easier cause joy is in nc states away? all i know is i want her happy i dont care who she is with as long as christian is good. and i am hoping andrea makes a clean break from chris and the only way they talk is when and where with the the kids like when there meeting for him to get the kids and when there meeting to get them back. other than that i hope they dont talk or txt at all. they both say they moved on but he keeps playing the game and keeping her at bay so she is there when he wants her to be she is his safety net he doesnt love her he uses her and her emotions and trys making her feel guilty like this is all her fault when it isnt. who knows how long he was doing things behind her back with renee? shit he was in a hotel with her withing a couple weeks of seperating from andea. the next step i want her to get the div papers filed and get there marriage ended... in the meantime i need to get a job. im hoping to get it in fla but we talked and if im not working and we have our own place by the time the kids are out of school she might be forced to move to sc to her moms. i dont want that to hapen cause then she will be back under moms rule and it wil hurt our relationship and end it if her mom has anything to do or say about it. i dont care if we stay in fla i just want a stable job and to be with the woman i love... the woman of my dreams that makes me happy and complete. i love you mom and i miss you all so much im sorry im venting i just cant talk to anyone about alot of this and it helps me by talking to you on here. ill let you know how things are going. i know you know cause your always with me and i pray every night. ill talk to you soon.

“ Hi mom. well its the anniversary of dads passing. this week sucks. paul silas from millers falls passed away last week he was 59 they had his funeral yesterday. i worked with him at umass and he was a regular at the bridge cafe. well just need to went and talk to you i am so sick right now i cant eat and im barely keeping liquid down. had 2 cups of tea a bottle of water and a can of pepsi all day yest. chris talked to andrea and he and renee have been having problems and all that well a couple days ago they broke up and he packed up and left and was going to stay with his grandmother. i guess she is kinda crazy? he couldnt bring all his stuff back there as well as the kids christmas stuff he and renee bought so andrea took my truck to meet him and get it. we got it unloaded etc and i knew something was going to happen. he texted her and asked her to meet yest with taylor then they would go pick up josh and hang out together. it seems when he met her to pick his stuff up he asked to come back home again. i talked to andrea about it i told her he is playing a head game again and telling her anything to get back home. if they didnt break up this wouldnt be any kind of issue but he always has andrea to fall back on and she doesnt like to make anyone unhappy well thats not true seems i get booted to the curb every time he asks to come home and he tells her some bullshit that it will be different this time? it never is. they have both agreed they have moved on but yet this shit happens again.... she told me last night she hasnt made up her mind but it makes me want to throw up knowing she is thinking about taking him back. she did great standing up to her mom and told her were together. her mom doesnt totally see it i guess? but in time she will come around. i have done everything i can to show andrea how much i love her and the kids. i trat them like there my own. all i heard yest was if he is willing to try to be there dad then why would i not let him? he can be there dad and is but why cant she be happy and at least give us a chance???? i told her when i came back here i want to be her choice not someone she was settling for. and i also told her when she said she chse me i wasnt walking away from her again it hurts so much i did it a year ago in nov she said they had to try after me and her got back from key west it lasted 2 days.. during that time i flew back here from mass took time off from work lied to phyllis at the time just to be with her because i love her so much and it killed me to be away. then i quit my job at umass yeah it was seasonal cause you were off during the summer but you got unemployment. i also quit the temp service working at judd wire the job was close to over and they would find little things for me to do. the manager told me they wanted it to be a perm position but he didnt know if that would hapen? it really didnt matter mom i have been gone from mass for so long it isnt home.... i mean it is home but not where my heart is. my heart is with andrea..... i came back here in march then within a couple months chris n renee had problems and he gave andrea some line of bull shit to take him back again and she did this time she told me it felt different with chris like it did when they were first together things he said he hasnt in a long time etc.... funny thing i left and went to n.c. and withing a day or so he was back to his old habbits come home from work take a nap etc and do his thing and not help around here. its just bullshit to get back in the door. then he left again they decided they didnt have the feelings and the love they had. ya they have a past and the kids but they said there moving on and he just keeps using andrea as a safety net . my heart feels like its being ripped out of my body yet again..... i really hope and pray she hasnt made up her mind and takes him back that would kill me and any chance we ever have for a future together i cant do this again. i would rather be dead than go through the pain i feel right now and if she chooses him over me again i hope she just kill me and end this pain i have done everything i can to show her how deep my love for her goes i have paid everything i can to help her house payments, car payments, util bills water cable phone avon groceries gas clothes you name it. doctors copays medications.... i did it cause i love her and the kids and i would do it all again in a min. i know i wil always love her protect her and fight for her and the kids i guess time will tell? im sure by this weekend the choice will be made? im sure he will want to have her meet with the kids this weekend and hang out as a family and fill her heard with more bullshit like see this is how it can be..... he does this all the time.... like i said and i hope andrea openes her eyes to it and sees if chris and renee didnt break up he wouldnt give a fuck about coming home he is happy doing his thing. when things with renee are going good you dont hardly hear from him the min theres trouble in paradise it i want to come home lets try again it will be different????? what fucking shit then im the asshole that has to leave then reality sets in and wow neither chris or andrea are happy there walking on eggshells around each other and wow he leaves n goes back to renee then i come back to andrea and wait for it all to happen again. i know that sounds bad im sorry but its like a a puppet or a yoyo at times? i love her so much and want to be with her so bad i am willing to do what it takes to give us our chance at being happy together. we still havent had that chance? im trying to get my taxes done so we can get money to get a place of our own not something they had there going to get the house anyway who knows when. i figure if we at least had our own place its us... something of ours and then go frim there. its like ill do anything for andrea she asked me to leave i left and moved to mass it didnt work i came back she asked me to leave again i did it didnt work i came back... she even came to n.c. 3 or 4 times to see me while i was there we said it was going to be different she promised me i was her choice this time and we were getting our divorces etc mine will be final any day chris talked her into waiting till after the holidays i guess this is why so he can try to get me out so he can come back till he goes back to renee or whatever?how can make andrea see that her time with chris is passed? he will always be the kids father and can see them anytime but andrea and chris are over its time for her to move on with me like we planned? i dont know? either i am the biggest fuckin fool asshole whatever for continuing to come back when the bottom drops out and they dont work? i dont think so i think its cause i have seen and felt the future we can have together if we only get ther chance and andrea can focus on us and not let chris or her mom etc tell her what to do and how to live her life and fill her head with bullshit.... why cant they say wow im glad your happy and were here for you and we support your decision to be with me? i do nothing but love her and the kids but everyone makes me feel like a doormat. her mom thinks in a rebound and from what i feel chris knows he can get andrea to do anything she is so afraid to tell him no and i have moved on i guess he feels thatill be here to take care of andrea and the kids and keep them safe while he plays house with renee and when it falls apart he will say the magic words I WANT TO COME HOME and low and behold andreas says ok its different this time and jamie leaves again..... funny she doesnt want to hurt anyone but it seems chris wins andreas mom wins cause the rebound is gone and im fucked over again.....i better shut up alot if this is just anger i am so frustrated and hurt. i keep hearing do you think this is easy for me???? i dont know how to answer that but i know when she made the choice of him back and me gone the first time she knew she messed up and we held each other all day every day till i left and last time wasnt anything like it yeah there was crying and emotions but not like the first time i guess it gets easier for some people the more it happens the funny part is it gets harder and harder for me to walk away. i want to fight with all i have this time mom if she chooses him because i will not come back for a serious relationship with her again i wont be here to pick up the pieces and say it will be all right lets get back together and use this as like a bump in the road hurdle we have to get through or past to be together. i laid my cards out on the table i wont go through this again if i have to leave i will let all the cards out on the table and say everything i want to say and what needs to be said to andrea as well as chris and andreas mom then i will take out a life ins policy on me for christian i will go to nc to spend time with him and if i cant get through this i will end this pain..... maybe im stupid for saying that but this hurts so bad i cant take it anymore..... all i want is andrea and the kids and to work on our future together. i dont care about problems everyone has them and with her anything and everything seems possible. well i have been rambling for a while now i slept about an hour 2 nights ago and maybe 2 hours tonight i just want andrea and me please help me if you can mom i love you ill keep you informed on whats going on

“ Hi mom. sorry i didnt write to you yesterday. well its 2012 and Andrea and i went out for new years. we went to wolffy's in sanford its small but nice and on the water. we went to see full circle play and hang out with e.o.a. it was fun for the most part. someone stepped on Andreas ankle so thats sore. also she got sick on the way home i guess from not eating enough before we went out. she threw up a little yest am as well guess it was her first hangover. im just glad she is feeling better. i know how it feels to feel like crap after drinking and throwing up. well we had our first Christmas together as well as New Years. it was very special for me i want this year to bring us closer together and i am hoping a job opens up soon. i know the end of the year is hard to get a job but after new years it opens up cause of new budgets etc. i want us to be able to have enough saved so we can move where we want to and in the mean time stay here as long as we can. had a rough night last night got the kids back from Chris and they were moody a little wich is normal so thats fine but after they got to bed Josh went into a coughing fit had to get meds for cough and make him do his breathing treatment. then Ta was up she ended up in bed with us so noone got sleep. last time i looked at the clock was like 130 Andrea told me at some point i was snoring alot so i rolled over then the dogs were sniffing n sneezing at the door for a while so i got up to feed them ta got up shortly after that then josh so i got them bfast im hoping Andrea is getting a little more sleep but i doubt it hope she at least can rest. I love Andrea with all my heart mom i have never loved anyone like this i cant imagine my life without her. when i hold her i know there is nothing that cant be done. i love you all so much and miss you all. i wish i could pick up the phone and call you just to hear your voice but i know you are all here with me always . Christian was upset he has to go back to school this am Josh and Ta are out till next mon. the kids are doing so good in school and im so proud of them. Ta is chomping at the bit to go to school it will be a trip some aug/sept im sure. not sure what else to say.... im not sure if you all had anything to do with me meeting Andrea or not i like to think you did and either way thank you..... meeting her was the best thing to happen to me in my life of course having Christian *too but the love i feel for her mom i cant put words to it or emotions .

i should be getting the div papers soon it should be final anytime now. Andrea has to talk to Chris again to get everything worked out so they can file theres. Chris said he wanted to wait till after the holidays?? just hope he isnt playing head games again.... he tried to guilt trip her sat night saying it bothered him when Andrea posted we were at wolfys with ful circle etc? he knew we were going.... oh well im hoping were bith divorced here soon Andreas aunt stella is going to lend her the money to file for the div that will put us a step closer to being further into our relationship. oh well i need to get going i know im cutting this off in mid stream but the kids are getting a little

“ Merry Christmas mom and to all the family that has passed/ i love you all and i miss you. i am with Andrea and the kids this year this has truly been my Christmas present. i love her and the kids so much. i cant wait to see there faces when they open all there stuff and to top it off when they see there new bicycles they are going to flip out. Christian is with Joy there going to her moms today christian said last night they went to her aunts in Fayetteville. Wish i could get him for a couple days but i cant afford it. hopefully something breaks with the work situation it is looking a little more positive. but nothing yet. Andrea and the kids are going to her moms mon and coming back thurs she is taking the truck. i know her mom is dying to see her and the kids so it will be nice for that to happen. i know it wil take some time till her mom wants anything to do with me so i have to try to be patient but its hard at times i dont understand why she cant see were happy? i will be glad when thurs night gets here cause they will be home and we willl have a short time to relax if you want to call it that . were going out to New Years party it will be another first for Andrea and me im looking forward to that alot. i want to bring the new year in right with a new year and a new beginning for us and our future. I love andrea so much she truly is the woman of my dreams . she makes me feel like anything is possible and i can tell her I LOVE YOU 1000 times a day and it doesnt seem like it covers my love and my feelings for her... she said maybe one day i will be able to explain it to her or show her but i have no idea how? i could use some help with that is any of you have any good ideas???? i am worried about Christian mom he is big and Joy doesnt seem to be helping with his eating. he was lying to me about what he eats and all the time he told me he was doing good he was eating the same shit and lying to me. joy said i need to accept him for who he is?? wtf is that? i want him healthy he doesnt have to be a body builder just eat a little balance and not the same shit all the time ... he sits on the computer or playing a video game and does nothing for excersize. at least when he was here he did eat better ya he turned his nose up at a few things and pissed and moaned but he ate plus the kids ran his ass off. i dont want him going through what i did with gastric. on a good note he is doing *great in school he won several awards and had to give a speech in front of the whole 4th grade class in school i am so proud of him. Josh started kindergarden he gets excited about going and seeing all his girlfriends..... hannah is the best so far i think ? keeps changing but she always is there in the mix. he is doing great in school. i think Taylor is chomping at the bit to start school we have been working on her letters and she is doing really good. mom i couldnt be prouder of the kids they are all so smart and doing great. i love them and i am very proud of them. if you can do me a favor when Christian is praying at night can you please try to talk to him maybe he will listen to you? i dont want anything to happen to him and the child protective services are cracking down on this kind of stuff. they took a kid away from there home and charged the parents with child abuse cause the kid was like 9 and 200 lbs. i dont want that happening to Christian . ok i gotta go im going to blow my nose and go back to bed had to put turkey in water in sink to thaw. dont want to be up in living room when the kids get up. ill talk to you soon i love you all and i miss you.

well had christian for thanksgiving andrea and i started making him eat better and his veggies he bitched about ti but he ate them. i talked to him tonight he is at 143 his dr said he lost 3 lbs last week so thats good. Joy filed for divorce i got the papers a couple weeks ago i guess? it doesnt have anything to do with custody of christian and i didnt have to sign anything so in 30 days from when i signed for the cert letter they turn it in and it is final so i guess thats our christmas present to be officialy divorced. thats a good thing i want her happy and she said she is with scott so thats good i know she wasnt with me and i wasnt with her but i am very happy with andrea i cant tell her enough how much i love her mom it doesnt seem like it covers what i feel for her. i am proud of christian he isnt eating totally as good as i would like but when he eats chicken nuggets etc he is eating less and stuff and at least trying new stuff.

Andrea is meeting chris in the am they are going to work out all the details on everything so they can file for divorce as well. i wil be so relieved and happy once tomorrow is over, i know things are different this time with andrea and me but last 2 times they met for breakfast to talk about stuff i ended up leaving and they got back together . i know im not going anywhere im not walking away from her i love her to much and i know we will be together we both want that and andrea and chris both agreed there not in love and what they had is gone. i just want andrea and i to move forward with us and our relationship and get married and be a family. i have never loved anyone like i love her mom i know tomorow will work itself out and everything will be moving forward. then we just have to deal with her dad he is such an asshole. he s causing all kinds of problems he calls n hangs up tries to guilt trip her about having a relationship with him. mom he is such an asshole he is a user and a plain and simple piece of shit he needs a good ass whipping for all the bull shit he is trying to stir up. he doesnt deserve the right to have a relationship with andrea, josh , taylor or andreas brother shawn. if he kees this upp i think his whole family will disown him and noone will talk to him. oh well i need to get to bed soon im sure ill be pacing alot waiting for andrea to come home after she meets chris guess there meeting about 815 - 830 not sure if she is meeting him there at dennys or if he is coming here and pick her up? i rather she meet him. just hope its over fast and she is home by 930. my luck he will pick her up and be out till they pick up taylor about noon then off till josh gets out at 230 then they all go out togehter to dinner or something? that would totally fucking suck. i hope its short n sweet bfast and be done and gone by 930 then me and andrea can get ta and then josh at 220. oh well i guess ill find out in the am?

ill probably message you again tomorow and let you know how it goes, i know im the only one that goes on the site mom but it makes me feel better to be able to talk to you here plus i do all the time in my prayers and i know christian does too he prayes every night i taught him to just like meme taught me to.

ok gotta run i love you mom.

“ hi mom

well its been another year and it still seems like yesterday that you were taken away from me in your hospital room.

Andrea and i went to the dunlawton bridge sat the 24th i know it was a day early but the weather was supposed to be bad and 60% chance of rain so we figured we would do it then. we went there about noon and i said a prayer for you and the family and i threw a red rose and red carnation with babys breath and fern in the water. the current was fast again it took it right toward the dock. andrea and i went there and had a couple beers in your memory and honor. the roof there is leaking bad they had like 4 places water was dripping from.

oh well enough about that. we went out and had lunch after the beers at the flea market the food at hopalongs grill isnt as good as it was but it filled the void. we goofed off a while and went to dinner and then to see full circle at shotz bar in debarry. it was smokey but the music was really loud. but it was good we hung out with E.O.A.

AND FULLCIRCLE all i know is mom i love andrea with all my heart and i want her as my wife and i want to be with her the rest of my life. oh well i just wanted to let you know i love you and i am thinking about you and all the family and you are all in my daily prayers. i wish you all could talk to chrisitian when he does his prayers. mom he has gotten big and it is really scaring me. joy doesnt make him do anything physicle he just eats and he eats junk peanut butter like for lunch and dinner. and he is on the computer all the time or x box or whatever system he has? he can tell you any gun they have in any movie thats just wrong for a kid that isnt 10 yet? oh well im running off at the mouth enough i need to get to bed im pretty tired.

Andrea is everything i ever wanted in a woman she makes me feel complete and whole. and when i am with her there is nothing we cant do. i love you mom and i miss you all so much. ill add the site here to andreas laptop so i can write more often even though im the only one that comes here. ok i gotta get to bed its almost 215 am on the 25th so 9 hours and 25 min and it will be exactly 2 years. you passed away at 1135 am on sept 25, 2009. i was on the phone with dr desimone when his pager went off and you coded. it was hard for me and still is to this day not to be able to talk to you but by doing it in prayer and here but i know that all the suffering you went through is over and thats good. doesnt make it much easier but it does help to know your not in pain like you were.

oh and yeah incase you didnt figure it out im back in titusville fl again. andrea and i are working on US and we are doing everything we can and what we need to so we can be together and we will be married when the time is right.

ok mom i really gotta go. i love you ill write again soon.

i love you

Christian is 10 now and he is really big he told me he weight 150 im getting him for a few days here for thanksgiving. ok i gotta run ill talk soon i love you.

i sent a note to you already but for some reason it didnt post here? i hope this one works. Andrea and i went to The Dock fri night and had a beer seeing it was your favorite spot. I still look at the seats where you n eddie used to sit and i can feel you not only there but alot of places in Daytona nad Port Orange. I was thinking about going under the Dunlawton Bridge also but decided i want that to be a dedication yearly on the anniversary of your passing. I know t doesnt matter because we talk all the time but i feel thats our time to have the people closest to us with us to celebrate something like that. I love you so much and i miss you . I wanted to let you know im back in Fla where i belong. Andrea and i are back together this time were both going after our future and trying to make all of dreams come true. I know it will be alot better this time i am actually working at a job that i get paid every week the only down fall is its thru a temp service but it doesnt matter they seem to have alot of work. thats the main thing. i am so happy to be back here and with Andrea, mom you know i love her with all my heart and i want to spend the rest of my life with her We went to the Titusville beach yesterday we both got fried she got it on her upper back and legs i got it all over my face chest stomach and back. should have worn my glasses and got the racoon look i even fried my eyelids . I hope this one posts cause i get tired of writing this over n over. this one is actually a little different from the one i did yesterday seeing we went to the beach . I know aunt Ellie is there with you all now too Peter n sherry moved in with Brush to help take care of him. Please tell everyone i said hi and Happy Mothers Day to you meme and aunt ellie.

I love you so much and i miss you i wish there was a way to talk to you other than this or in my prayers but i know we can. there are some days i could use you giving me advice or letting me know im dong good? but i feel sometimes like i dont know anything . Joy is being such an ass at times she keeps laying giult trips on me about Christian. Part of me wants to go for custody so bad when i file for divorce but i know it isnt right to take him from her. She is being such an asshole about alot of this. she said i can see hm anytime i want but i cant on Christmas Day or his B-day well she is in for a rude awakening cause Kathy is going to get me the paperwork for divorce and i am putting in there that we have joint custody and he will live there but the holidays will be rotating and we will split the time off when he is on vac or out of school. the only time she contacts me is if there is a problem not sure if thats good or not? i wish we could get to a point that she feels she can be not such an ass? Not that i care what she does she has Scott so she should be happy i just feel that if she was a little more pleasant and could talk civil to me it would be easier. i dont want her to do it for me i just feel Christian is caught in the middle and cant say this or that a out whats going on ? i wouldnt have known about her n scott if christian didnt tell me he was playing with dillon when i asked who dillon was i thought it was a friend from school he told me its moms friennd scotts son. i mean i dont care tat she found someone i am so glad she did i want her to be happy i just know that our time to be happy has been over for a long time i just want to get back to the point of being civil. but thats on her i cant make her do anything im just trying to be nice is she wants to be an ass thats on her.

all i know i am very happy back here in fla im working and am with the woman i love with all my heart and the woman of my dreams. she is the one i have been looking for mom. she makes me feel so good about myself as well as i feel so good when were together. there are so many things i want to do with her and me alone as well as her me and all the kids josh taylor and christian. The kids had alot of fun when they got to hang out and play together and i am hoping there will be alot more of that to come in the future. i want to spend the rest of my life with Andrea mom but you know that already i tell you all the time. i cant imagine my life without her in it. she has opened my eyes to a love like i never knew was possible. its like a type of love you dream about but you never think its possible. but i can tell you first hand the love i feel for her is awesome always growing. well i know im running off at the mouth so ill end it here. ill try to do better about sending you messages here . GOD i hope this posts cause i cant type all this again..... lol ok i gotta go i love you all and miss you very much.

love always,
Jamie

“ Hi Mom

Happy Mother's Day

i know its a day early but i wanted to do it today. Andrea and i went to the dock last night and had a beer. It was emotional for me i looked at where you n eddie used to usually sat even with other people sitting there it didnt matter i could still feel you there and i remebered all the times we went there and just talk or have a beer or whatever. I was thinking about going under the dunlawton bridge last night too but decided not to. I told Andrea i think we will just to that on the memorial of your passing. It's funny the more i drive around daytona and port orange past all your hang outs n stuff i feel you there and it brings back so many memories. Wanted to update you yeah im back in Florida im working through a temp agency but im doing electrical again. the pay isnt that great but the work is pretty steady so tht takes off alot more pressure. Had to fly back to mass a couple weeks ago filed bankruptsy, m so glad thats over can start fresh again. I am so in love with Andrea and were moving forward with everything, we both see our future and thats what were working for. Had an empanada party at er aunt Stella's a couple weeks ago they are really good. you would love her aunt she takes no bs and lets it fly and tell you what she feels. Gee who does that remind you of? lol.. Christian gets out of school June 10th i am trying to get him for a while this summer. He is getting so big Joy isnt making him do anything but eat shit from mc d's or whatever she said a few weeks ago he was like 117 lbs. i just worry i dont want him going thru gastric and stuff like i had to but if i say anything all i will hear from her is bitching and i had enough of that when i was with her at least she has a new guy she can bitch at. Just wish between her and her parents they would at least make him get outside and be active. all he does is play on his ds or xbox or the computer. he has more shit that any 10 kids i know combined. I keep telling myself whe n air this out its like were talking and i know im the only one that will see this except for Andrea but i like doing it i know i talk to you alot when im having a bad day or just to let you know im thinking about you and i dont need to type it out but sometimes it helps. im sure you know aunt Ellie passed too *and she is with you all now. Tell her and Meme i said Happy Mothers Day I love you all and i miss you so much.

Ill talk to you soon.
I LOVE YOU MOM*

Love,

“ Hi Momi havent been able to post anything for Thanksgiving, Christmas or New Years. My laptop crashed and i had to get anotehr one. i actually am using one i got for 8.00 at rent to own i got if till feb 5th so ill take it back then and get a new one. Just wanted to stop on by and let you know how much i love you and how much i miss you. i know im putting this on here for me because i pray several times a day and talk to you alot when im having a bad day. well im back in mass staying with phyllis n herb. started working at umass its part time only work when the kids are there and the pay sucks but at least its a paycheck. supposed to be starting any day at judd wire they have a temp job that will last a couple months. so im waiting to get a call on that. Andrea and i are doing ok were both trying to get stable and on our feet and as soon as i do i want to move back to florida asap. Mom i love her with all my heart and i know you know it cause i tell you all the time. I know things havent been going good for us but i know it is changing i cant imagine my life without her and the kids in it. Christian is getting so big he is really tall and cute (he must take after me)i dont get to see him much cause he is in nc with Joy and im in mass plus money wise it sucks. i know that once i get on my feet i want to go back to florida to be with Andrea. we went to the keys and had a great time. we want our future together so bad mom . its just so hard being so far away. i try to be strong and fight back my emotions but it sucks. its all i can do is think about her and i miss everything with her. Chris is coming over there tomorrow and hanging with the kids and there doing there taxes so i wont be able to talk to her much at all tomorrow and wed cause he is staying there tues n wed night. and then im off this sat and sun and there going to a club to see full circle. i want her to have fun and everything cause she has been so depressed with the job and money situation but at the same time i am so jelous cause i want it to be me that she is having fun with. when i left fla in nov and they tried to work it out andi came back she we both cried so much about everything. she did tell me after that when i drove off and all that she knew she made the biggest mistake of her life . i love her mom and i know that andrea and i will be married soon im hoping within the next year or so. i just want to get back there and be able to see her and hold her and all the little silly things we did. its funny the things you think are silly n stupid you miss like crazy when you dont have them?im not sure how much talking i have done on here but i really dont care. i know im the only one that comes on here now and its for me to air my thoughts and stuff. i would love to be able to get back to fla and get a good job that pays weekly and is stable. once i do that and andrea gets to a point she can let everyone know im back and were together and moving on as a couple then i want to be able to get christian to fla several times a year and see him alot more. i just havent been able to mom and it sucks so bad i miss him so much. but even more its killing me not to be with andrea. i have so much going on right now. the atty for your estate is a fuckin crook and screwed me over at every turn. i lost your half of the house i lost the cd's i lost even the money you got from travlers and the money on the furiture. it all went to eddie and when he passed 6 weeks after you it went tio his kids. hell they wont return phone calls or anything. i wish i saw all this coming i would have had your service here in mass back home. i know it isnt what you wanted but i hate syracuse i cant believe that eddies family would be like that after they were so nice when you were in the hospital. i talked to travlers and they said there isnt anything they can do about the checks eddie put in the joint acct. i know there were 4 checks you didnt sign i dont know what kkind of shit they pulled at the bank but i am so fed up. i dont know how much more i can take with it? they sold the house and made 40 - 50k plus 8 k on cd's 3k on furniture 1k on your travelrs cks plus the joint acct . and i had to pay social security almosy 11 k plus the fkn lawyer charged me 3 k to file a offer to them for 5 k what bull shit. i got screwed so fkn hard with all of this. i ran up over 10k in bills tryin to get there to see you n help. and then again with eddie. i am filing bankruptsy asap after i do my taxes i dont have alot of choice. i am getting offers to settle for alot less than i owe on my cards but why would i pay that when the card is no good and my credit is shot? might as well file and get it over with and start off again? at least the money i would have paid i can keep. oh well im running off at the mouth . ill talk to you soon on here mom . and ill be praying as usual. i would like to ask a favor.

you know andrea is my hearts desire please mom get the rest of the family together and help me be strong enough to hold on and help me be with andrea asap. it would kill me if i lost her. i have never felt like this before. i feel my emotions are hanging by a thread im not sure how much more i can take? like i said i know what you wanted in being in ny but i would have broke that and had you come home to mass if i knew about the bull shit that was going to happen. i love you mom and i miss you so much. tell everyone i said hi and to pray for me please? talk to you soon, lovejamie

“ Happy Birthday Mom

i wish you were here so bad at times like these when i need you so much. i have to get a truck later this am and im packing to go back to Ma. not sure of so many things my heart is torn so bad right now im just trying to hold everything together as best i can. am hoping and praying with everything i have that the greatest love i have ever seen and felt will come full circle and we will be back together soon. I am a fighter you know that and this is the hardest battle i have ever fought maybe because i have to go on trust and love and if i do that i dont fight? its killing me to just pack up and leave and walk away but i know if there is to be any chance for my future to be the way i want it then this has to happen. i know i dont like it my heart is telling me if i love her then i will trust her and let this run its course and it will fall apart and we will be stronger than ever and we can be truly happy but my head is telling me to hold on and fight till there is no fight left and put everything out on the table and confess my feelings to all who will listen. but in doing so it means that we cant build on rocky ground and the relationship would fail and i cant handle that i want the future we have seen and talked about so i am going back to ma and regroup and get back on track and wait to hear the phone ring telling me its time to come home so we can be together and build our future. I just had to air this out here mom i know you know already i talk to you every night in my prayers. i just want you to please keep an eye on andrea and the kids and of course christian he just turned 9 on the 15th. please mom watch over them and protect them for me till i come home to them. I LOVE YOU MOM

“Hi mom , well today makes a year since we lost you. Not a day goes by that i don't think about you and miss not being able to talk to you and hear your voice and just talk to you about anything. They say that in time it gets easier i sure wish that time would come because the pain is still there and the emptyness that goes with it all is still there every waking moment of every day. The only comfort i really feel is to know that the pain and sufering you were going through the past 4 years of so are over and your with dad and meme and pepe and all of out family and friends that have passed and gone to be with Jesus. I am so blessed to have the comfort of my family and friends to help when the pain gets too hard to handle. I don't know if anyone ever comes on here except for me now since the posting has gone? but i do know it helps with letting me air out thoughts i have as well as let me talk to you not only in my nightly prayers but on here too. I Love You Mom.I Miss You so much i know that alot of where i am right now was your intervention and i thank you for that i have found a love like i never knew was possibe and im sure you can see it too and you have the biggest grin on your face knowing it was your work to bring us. I wish you could have met when you were still here but you will always be in my heart thoughts and prayers and i know your always with me. I Can't wait to make a trip to mass to see the family and let everyone see the love that is possible. i gotta go mom im getting to heart broken trying to find the words i want to say you know my heart and i know your watching me and would be upset with me for being sad today. i wnted to let you know were going to the Dock later to pay tribute to you seeing thats where you and Eddie met and that was a favorite hang our for the Syracuse crowd it will be the first time i have been back there since the last time you and Eddie were able to come down. Were also going to get a red carnation like the one Christian put with you we are taking it under the bridge by the old Sinbads another favorite spot of yours and were going to say a prayer and throw it in the water in dedication of you. I LOVE YOU MOM AND I MISS YOU SO MUCH. im just so glad i got to talk to you that weekend before you passed it made me feel so good to see you like that again back to your old self joking and being a smart ass gee with pepe wonder where you got that from?? well i better shut up im not sure if there is a limit to how much rambling you can do? and if anyone else comes on here and sees this they will say wtf. but its the only thing i can do is tell you from the bottom of my heart how much i love you and how much i miss you. Tell all our family and friends i said hi and i love them and miss them and one day we will all be together again and like our family is known for it will be one huge party im sure.ok i gotta go get ready so we can go to the Dock later I LOVE YOU MOM and I MISS YOU SO MUCH im sorry i ran off at the mouth so much but i guess i picked up that family trait too huh??LOVE YOU ALWAYS,Jamie
