“ Jim was a GREAT guy and a good friend! From first meeting you couldn't help but like him, always a kind word and a sense of humor, we'll miss him dearly, he was the best!

August 11, 2010 at 12:00 AM

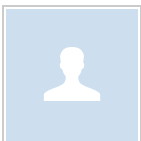

“ I sat with him for 4 hours and watched a game with him where the Yankees beat the Rays, 9-5 and both me and my mom made him laugh by asking him as he sat in his chair if he'd like to go water skiing and such. It was not only my privilege to sit with him that day but also to be rooting the Yankees along with him and helping to gladly do my part in keeping the spirits up. :) That and as I'll always remember fondly because it shows what a kind man he always was, there was the time right before I left when he gave me a firm handshake and told me I'm a good man. Something that I believe is more so the case for him and always was. Just like everyone, I'll miss him. This world could never possibly have TOO many like Jim. God Bless.

“ To the Lancette family, We are truly sorry for your loss. I am sure God has something for Jim to do. What a ""Great"" guy. I will never forget when I drove truck for Deli-Boy, (1987-1989). I had a delivery to Green Hills Farm. This man, checked in the load. He looked at me and said you look familiar what's your name? I said you look familiar what's your name? He said Jim, Jim Lancette. I said Ed, Ed Puma. He said I should look familiar, I Am Your Aunt Ruth's brother. I looked forward to my Friday delivery to G.H.F. Ed Puma and family.

“ Dear Grandpa, you were always there and you were so happy and funny. I still remember when i was a baby how you would play kickball and you would laugh and its just so good memories. All my friends love you and a message from Victoria the girl you would call toooorrrriiaaaaaa-Hi you were like a grandpa to me because i never had a grandpa . Back to me grandpa i love you and i see you painting the sky and in my dreams

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Jimmy,(a.k.a. Grumpy) You have been there for me since day one, when i was born. You gave me the best life i could ask for so far, making me laugh, singing songs with me...you just always knew how to put a smile on someones face. and even in your couch when you couldnt eat and were very sick you still managed to laugh and joke around. I will never forget you, as for i dont think anyone could. Thank you grandpa for giving me a good start on my life, supporting me and my family through all. You will always be my role modle. Also thank you for showing me what true love is with my grandma, just the way that you two look at eachother, is just incredible. I love you grandpa & i will never, ever forget you

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ To My Jimmy, Thanks for all the wonderful memories;;;thank you for loving my mom so greatly an giving her a wonderful life. Thanks for always understanding, helping an guiding me thru all my problems(man there were a few).. You were our tree,,,the mighty oak(lol) there will never be another who can make us laugh so hard,,(swamppoppamomma goose),,,,u were my hero, my friend and the best step dad anyone could ask for...love an miss u'Dawn

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Gramps, Ever since i was born you made me laugh. You made a joke about everything. Even on your death bed you were cracking jokes like it was nothing. I guess im trying to say i will always remember you and i will never forget you. I love you. 8.08.10 8:08 A.M

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Jimmy i hear a car....neeeeyooooowww. I love you so much and miss you more than ever. I am glad you are finally at peace and not going threw what you had to go threw any longer. You were always there for our family and gave us and my grandma the best times ever. You will forever be in our hearts & i know you will always be watching over us all, love you so much

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ our deepest sympathys to your family. God bless. Pam and Dean

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Uncle Jimmy, Truly...you were one of the funniest people I ever knew. Just thinking about your antics makes me smile in spite the pain my heart feels right now. You always had a knack for making everyone feel that you were genuinly glad to see them and that they were special. Your presence lit up the room and you are greatly missed. It was hard seeing you sick. I'm not very good with showing my emotions and I appologize to you for not showing you how I really felt while you were still with us. But I know one day we will rejoice when we see each other again in heaven, Uncle Jimmy. I love you. p.s. Please tell Jesus and Grandma I said Hi! Love, Pam

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Grandpa always had a kind heart and used to say to me, ""Do you want to grow up to look just like me?"" and i always replied yes. Grandpa was healthy and strong and everybody loved him, and especially me.

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Who could forget that wonderful smile and sense of humor? It was a pleasure knowing you Jim. Clinking our glasses to You~~~ He would know what that means!

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dad I will always remember the licorice sandwich it was so funny. I love you more than you ever knew. I hope that your journey to heaven will be a unforgettable experience for you. In the last part of your life you taught me alot.How to be strong, and the all about the multiple choices in life.I will miss you dearly Dad and will cherish your memory for ever. I love you Dad.

August 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Dad, I will miss you deeply, but if makes my heart fill with love knowing that you are still with us and are watching over your children and grandchildren. we will keep you with us in spirit everyday. Lindsey's says that you will probably make her laugh in her dreams! You have made this process much easier to accept for Zachary and Shannon and Lindsey. Mark and I love you very much!
