

James A. McCormick

January 19, 1978 - September 20, 2009

James A. McCormick, 31, passed away in Syracuse on Sunday. Born and raised in The Valley section of Syracuse, he was the dearly loved son of Jeanette McCormick and the late Harold Cummings.

In addition to his mother, James is survived by his grieving family: Amy McCormick, sister; Jeffrey McCormick, brother; Vince Guerrero, brother-in-law; Jesse McCormick, nephew; Taigan Guerrero, niece; Nancy McCormick and Susan Morse, aunts; Alese Burnett, long-time girlfriend; Meg, Cynthia, John, Andy, Lisa and Lance, cousins.

James was the manager of the meat department at Green Hills grocery store, where he was employed for over ten years. Store owners and employees said that James "was extraordinarily competent, always had a smile, and will be sorely missed."

James was sweet, down-to-earth, caring, a fantastic and playful uncle and one who always had the ability to make people laugh. In his youth, he was an award-winning pitcher for the Apple Valley Little League.

“ Rest in Peace James and watch over Alese. You made her very happy and therefore you made me very happy. I'll be here for her down here, knowing you're watching over her from Heaven. God called you home and I will always wonder why he took such a wonderful man so early. You are so missed and loved. Sarah
